RACE 1: BRITISH EBF FILLIES' NOVICE STAKES (PLUS 10)

Sendacard Dandy's Angel Hostelry

SENDACARD was beaten less than a length on debut at Thirsk and Richard Fahey's youngster, who kept on well in the final stages of that contest, could be the answer here. Dandy's Angel was third over course and distance on her first outing and makes plenty of appeal, while Hostelry was only beaten a neck on her second appearance in July and appears a must for the shortlist.

RACE 2: RACINGTV.COM NURSERY

Nat Love Ralphy Boy Two Wade's Magic

NAT LOVE brings plenty of experience to the table and, having opened his account with a four-length success at Epsom last time, he appears the one to side with. Ralphy Boy Two was a winner of a seven furlong nursery here last month and drops back in trip off a 3lb higher mark, while Wade's Magic and the blinkered first-time Magic Timing are interesting on handicap debut.

RACE 3: ANDERSONS 'DENTON HOLME' HANDICAP (DIV 1)

Autumn Flight Naples Bay Amazing Grazing

Naples Bay bounced right back to form with a victory over course and distance late last month and could have a big part to play once again off a 3lb higher mark. However, preference is for Tim Easterby's AUTUMN FLIGHT, who rattled the crossbar over track and trip when last seen and is rated just 1lb higher now. Stablemate Kenny The Captain has won twice here in the past and can't be ignored, while others to consider are Catterick third Amazing Grazing and Patrick.

ROUND THE ISLAND is 13lb below his last winning mark and could take advantage if the ground remains good or better. The six-year-old caught the eye when fifth at Pontefract in early July and arrives fresh following a 54-day break. Ninjago was second here 13 days ago and can continue his fine form recently, while hat-trick seeking Night Law has a further 5lb rise to deal with.
