

KOREA: Busan Racecourse – Friday November 13, 2020

Race 4: Class 6 (1300M) Allowance / KRW 25 Million

The maiden gallopers go over 1300m in the fourth where there looks to be limited early speed engaged. (4) PEACE BAEK looks ready to win coming off successive placings including one just four weeks back. The filly lacked early speed last time out before reeling off a good sectional. Kim Myoung-sin gets a good opportunity to break a run of outs. (11) DAESAN GAPBU looks an each way chance in the event albeit still a maiden after thirteen starts. The filly finished fourth late October behind Gold Magic when hitting the line in fair style. You Hyun-myung will be legged aboard for the first time. (8) GEUMA GOOD POINT lines up for his fifth start with Lee Hyo-sik staying aboard. The Peace Rules gelding finished fourth last time out when running on well. (9) DIVINE QUEEN was somewhat disappointing last time out when well beaten over the 1200m. She has finished third on two occasions from the six starts and should take improvement out of the recent run.

Selections	(4) Peace Baek (11) Daesan Gapbu (8) Geuma Good Point (9) Divine Queen
Next Best	6, 3
Fast Start	8, 11

Race 5: Class 6 (1400M) Allowance / KRW 25 Million

(3) SUN ALPHA is another one who benefits from being allowed another crack in class 6 despite already having broken his maiden last month. That win had been coming too, following on from a runner-up finish in August and there is no reason why he can't repeat today. He does like to come from off the pace though so there is always a danger of him being left with a little too much to do. If this happens then (7) ALPHA STAR is perhaps the one to take advantage. He too would normally be up at class 5 by now with two solid runner-up finishes to his name. He should be on pace from the start and can go close. (8) KING OF JOY passed plenty late on last time and should be in the placing frame again here while (4) CHEONMA HASEO and (5) PILSEUNG IJI are others in the hunt.

Selections	(3) Sun Alpha (7) Alpha Star (8) King Of Joy (4) Cheonma Haseo
Next Best	5
Fast Start	5, 7

Race 6: Class 5 (1300M) Handicap / KRW 40 Million

A race with plenty of depth with many horses looking to have potentially bright futures. (8) SMART VALUE debuted in brilliant style back in June when running a sub-minute 1000m to win by a staggering seven lengths. In-form rider Jo In-kwon will ride once again. (6) FINAL PARTY drops back to the 1300m after being well beaten in the Korean Oaks. The Office filly finished second in this grade before heading to the Oaks. She should be considered a winning chance. (3) GABO TODAY clocked an impressive time back in August when leading throughout over 1200m. A similar performance can see him go close once again. When Djordje Perovic and Kim Yong-kwan combine it is worth taking note. (1) JANGMI GONGJU comes off a second behind Just Win late October and will get the gun run from the inside draw. He has a weight advantage against the majority of the field and should be able to hit the line strong.

Selections	(8) Smart Value (6) Final Party (3) Gabo Today (1) Jangmi Gongju
Next Best	2, 4
Fast Start	3, 7, 8, 11

Race 7: Class 5 (1200M) Handicap / KRW 40 Million

(8) TWO TWO WILD THING comes in having run a good 2nd three weeks ago at class and distance. The apprentice jockey keeps the weight down very nicely and he has every chance of getting on pace early and going all the way here. (2) ACEUI GIPPEUM remains a maiden after four attempts but has three runner-up finishes and a 3rd to her name. She beat a couple of these en-route to that 3rd place last month and should get close again. (7) GEUMA BONNY hasn't been seen since beating Aceui Gippeum when winning on her only start to date. It came at this distance and followed a couple of trial performances. She will probably need this race but nevertheless, should be a factor. (4) WINNING DANCER and (1) YESSA QUEEN are among a number of others who come in here with positive form and who have every chance of at least a place.

Selections	(8) Two Two Wild Thing (2) Aceui Gippeum (4) Winning Dancer (7) Geuma Bonny
Next Best	1, 9, 11
Fast Start	1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 9

Race 8: Class 4 (1400M) Allowance / KRW 60 Million

Best bet on the card comes up in the eighth where a field of twelve line up over the 1400m. (10) FASHION KEY looks to have a mortgage on this race given the form lines she brings into the event. The Old Fashioned filly finished third back in August behind My Tiz Gem in this grade. With just the 53kg on her back she should prove hard to beat. (5) MAN OF TOP hasn't been too far away at his past few starts. The US import should be able to camp on the leaders back and run into the money come the business end. The three-year-old hasn't been seen since August and we suggest there may be some improvement with him to come. (3) POKPUNG EONDEOK has been rattling off some brilliant sectionals. The Violence colt takes time to find his feet but can hit the line with gusto. He might be one to follow as her steps out over a longer journey. (4) RETURN OF THE KING looks next best of the remainder of the field. The six-year-old will benefit from the claim of Kim Tae-hyun.

Selections	(10) Fashion Key (5) Man Of Top (3) Pokpung Eondeok (4) Return Of The King
Next Best	2, 7
Fast Start	2, 7, 9

Race 9: Class 4 (1600M) Allowance / KRW 60 Million

(5) AFLEET YOUNG comes in looking for a third straight victory with both of his latest two having come at this class over 1400M. He is yet to strike at this distance but he should come from off the pace here and every chance of completing a hat-trick. (12) JEONSEOLUI BOSS put together a three-race winning streak of his own in the summer, including one at class and distance. Last start he ran 2nd to Afleet Young and it would be no surprise to see the pair of them battling it out for top honours again. (2) ONE PICK is a winner at this distance already and comes in following a good 4th over 1200M just two weeks ago. (9) DOCTOR SKY and (10) SEONGSAN POWER are others who come in with recent from reading well and who should be in at least the placing frame.

Selections	(5) Afleet Young (12) Jeonseolui Boss (2) One Pick (9) Doctor Sky
Next Best	10, 3
Fast Start	9, 12

Race 10: Class 2 (1600M) Allowance / KRW 90 Million

The tenth on the card is a Class 2 to get excited about. (4) TOUCH STAR MAN lines up with fresh legs over the mile which looks ideal. The Testa Matta three-year-old took out two legs of the Triple Crown including the KRA Cup Mile and the Minister's Cup at his most recent start. He has won five of his nine starts and looks destined for greater assignments. (5) SPEED FURY is a handy Korean-bred who has won six of his nine races flying through the grades. The lightly raced five-year-old is yet to line up over the mile but has won impressively over 1400m previously. He has saluted in this class previously and looks the likely pacemaker in the event. (1) YES PERFECT comes off a last start second in this grade back in August. The four-year-old is likely to settle just behind the leaders and have every chance come the top of the straight. US import (7) HUNCH has won his past three races and whilst this looks much tougher than previous runs, he cannot be ignored. The Wolsley trained galloper has improved at each start, the mile looks ideal upon resuming.

Selections	(4) Touch Star Man (5) Speed Fury (1) Yes Perfect (7) Hunch
Next Best	12, 8
Fast Start	4, 5, 7

Race 11: Class 3 (1800M) Allowance / KRW 75 Million

(2) BLUE POWER has established himself as one of the top three-year-olds in the country with 4th place in the Korean Derby followed by 2nd in the Minister's Cup. The form from the Classics this year has tended to hold up very well when dropping back to restricted company and he will be expected to come from off the pace with a strong finish and to win well here. (9) YEONGGWANGUI FIGHT beat a couple of these on his way to 4th place at this class over 1400M last month. He has gone well at this distance in the past and looks nicely in here. (6) MAN OF THE MATCH put in a disappointing run that day but is better than that and can be given another chance here. (7) THUNDER KING beat Yeonggwangui Fight when winning that this distance at class 4 level back in August. He struggled in the Minister's Cup but should be much closer today.

Selections	(2) Blue Power (9) Yeonggwangui Fight (7) Thunder King (6) Man Of The Match
Next Best	4, 8
Fast Start	6, 7
