

RACE 1: QIPCO BRITISH CHAMPIONS LONG DISTANCE CUP (GROUP 2) BroomeStradivarius Search For A Song Stradivarius is obviously the most likely winner of this contest having arguably put in a career-best when easily winning the Gold Cup here in June. That said, he was beaten in this race 12 months ago and was not the most impressive of winners two years ago, and for the first time he arrives here on the back of a hard race on heavy ground in the Arc. With that in mind, a chance can be taken with BROOME, who is unproven over this trip but he is a strong stayer over 1m4f. The son of Australia beat Sovereign by eight lengths in the Ballysax last year when last seen on soft ground and some promise could be taken from his sole previous start this year in the Coronation Cup. The dual Irish St Leger winner Search For A Song is more than capable of going well if handling the ground, while Dawn Patrol and Fujaira Prince are others who merit plenty of respect.

RACE 2: QIPCO BRITISH CHAMPIONS SPRINT STAKES (GROUP 1) Starman Oxted The Tin Man
Oxted has not been seen since his impressive victory in the July Cup and that form gives him a big chance today, although he does have to prove that he handles very soft ground. Dream Of Dreams is another with strong form claims as the six-year-old appears to be better than ever judging by his victories in the Sprint Cup and Hungerford Stakes in recent months. That said, he has been disappointing in this race for the last two years and that has to be a concern. The unexposed STARMAN beat a very good field when winning a Listed race at York last month, where he accounted for the recent dual winner Dakota Gold amongst others. Ed Walker's three-year-old needs to find more improvement, but he has only had three starts to date and should be capable of making his mark at this level. The Tin Man can be a bit unpredictable these days but he did not have things go his way at York last weekend, despite finishing second, and he could reward each-way support in an open contest.

RACE 3: QIPCO BRITISH CHAMPIONS FILLIES & MARES STAKES (GROUP 1)

Dame Malliot

Wonderful Tonight Antonia De Vega Wonderful Tonight relishes testing conditions and enjoyed her finest hour when landing her first victory at the highest level in the Prix de Royallieu at Longchamp earlier in the month. That said, David Menuisier's filly had a very tough race and may prove vulnerable to fresher rivals. The vote, therefore, goes to DAME MALLIOT as she finished ahead of Wonderful Tonight when the pair met in the Prix Vermeille last month and she doesn't face a rival of the calibre of the winner of that contest, Tarnawa, in this field. Antonia De Vega is unbeaten in two runs this season and produced a career-best when scoring at Newmarket last month, while Irish Oaks winner Even So and Thundering Nights are both likely to be in the mix with proven form on soft ground.

NO. HORSE NAME

- 1 ANTONIA DE VEGA Winner of five races from 7f to 1m 4f on ground varying from good to firm to soft. A winner at 16-5 in the Group 3 Princess Royal Muhaarar Stakes at Newmarket over 1m 4f (good) on her latest outing last month, beating Alpinista by 1/2l. Has also won at Pontefract this season.

RACE 4: QUEEN ELIZABETH II STAKES (GROUP 1) (SPONSORED BY QIPCO) (STR) Palace Pier The Revenant Circus Maximus PALACE PIER cemented his position as the leading miler of his generation with an excellent display to land the Prix Jacques le Marois at Deauville in August having followed up his course victory over Pinatubo in the St James's Palace at the Royal meeting. The son of Kingman has proven his versatility over a variety of grounds and remains open to further progression on only his sixth career outing. The Revenant finished runner-up to King Of Change in this contest 12 months ago and arrives having landed the Prix Daniel Wildenstein for the second year in a row at Longchamp on Arc weekend. He could have more to offer, as that was his first outing of the season, while Queen Anne hero Circus Maximus and Sun Chariot winner Nazeef appear best of the remainder.

RACE 5: QIPCO CHAMPION STAKES (GROUP 1) Magical Mishriff Skalleti MAGICAL landed this contest for Aidan O'Brien 12 months ago and her form in the interim, which includes her last-time-out beating of Ghaiyyath in the Irish Champion Stakes last month, suggests she's the one they all have to beat once again. Addeybb was second to the selection in last season's renewal, has his ideal ground and could put up plenty of resistance, though the main danger this time may turn out to be Mishriff, who won comfortably on heavy ground in a French Group 2 latest and receives a weight-for-age allowance. St Leger third Pyledriver has enjoyed a superb season and could turn the tables on his Derby conqueror Serpentine if the latter isn't afforded a soft lead this time. French raider Skalleti is also respected, given the forecast conditions, as he beat subsequent Arc de Triomphe hero Sottsass on heavy ground at Deauville in August (albeit that rival was subsequently held by Magical in the Irish Champion Stakes).

RACE 6: BALMORAL HANDICAP (SPONSORED BY QIPCO) (STR) Raaeq Orbaan Raising Sand

David O'Meara has won two of the last three renewals so any money for his two runners this year, Hortzadar and Orbaan, would be interesting. The last-named left a good impression when winning at York off 3lb lower earlier in the year and caught the eye with his finishing effort in a steadily-run C&D contest won by Tempus last month. That said, RAAEQ could be the one to be on. Brian Meehan's three-year-old, who was a distance winner at Sandown last month, is turned out under a 6lb penalty for his 7f victory on soft ground here last time and remains open to improvement on his sixth career start. King Ottokar and Raising Sand are others effective at this venue, while Keats looks the pick of the Irish raiders.
