

KOREA: Busan Racecourse – Friday November 20, 2020

Race 4: Class 6 (1200M) Allowance / KRW 25 Million

It's fair to say the fourth on the card is a rather weak maiden event. (4) INDIAN PARTY goes on top on the basis of his successive placings at his last two starts. He's a speedy type who should benefit dropping back to the 1200m after finishing third over the 1400 at his past two starts. Expect a positive ride from Djordje Perovic. (2) LUCKY MAGIC is yet to place from seven starts but did clock a relatively quick time last time out when finishing fourth behind Good Socks. From barrier two expect him to camp on the leaders' coattails before being asked for at the top of the straight. (11) RAPIDO QUEEN lines up for her third starts after a disappointing effort last time out when last in a field of fourteen. She missed the kick before being urged along by Lee Hyo-sik and never looking comfortable in the run. Her debut in August was much more encouraging, when sitting in the first half of the field before plugging away to finish fourth. (7) HAVE A GOOD TIME rounds out the top four after finishing eighth on debut. This assignment looks easier but he would still have to improve significantly to be a winning chance.

Selections	(4) Indian Party (2) Lucky Magic (11) Rapido Queen (7) Have A Good Time

Race 5: Class 6 (1300M) Allowance / KRW 25 Million

(6) HANEUL ULLIM gets another crack at class 6 despite having won at it back in October when the stakes money was reduced across the board. He came from well back that day, running on pleasingly and the additional half furlong today shouldn't be a factor. He will be the strong favourite. Both (7) A ONE PLUS and (10) DONGNAM BULPAE come in off pleasing debuts in which they finished 4th and 5th respectively, both of them over this distance. Both should be in the hunt for at least a place finish today. (1) SEUNGNI TOUT has a runner-up finish to his name from back in June. He struggled when sent up to a mile the following month but is capable of getting closer today. He may well lead in a race with little early speed.

Selections	(6) Haneul Ullim (10) Dongnam Bulpae (1) Seungni Tout (7) A One Plus
Next Best	5, 8

Race 6: Class 6 (1400M) Allowance / KRW 25 Million

The sixth on the card looks an extremely competitive maiden event with many chances. (10) YEONGGWANGUIRUNNER goes on top after a good performance last time out when finishing second over 1200m. The Colors Flying colt settled well back in the run before steaming home late. Gate ten won't necessarily be an issue with the three-year-old normally taking some time to find his feet. (9) TAPIT WONDERFUL has started his career in consistent fashion, yet to finish worse than fourth from four starts. He flooded home late last start to finish runner-up behind Dongbangui Sijak over the 1200m. He looks one that will benefit with the extra furlong. (6) GOLD MAGIC is a beneficiary of the 'no penalty' arrangement during the Covid relief racing. One of the last crop from Turtle Bowl, the gelding reversed his form lines last time out to steam home and win over 1200m. He looks the likely pacemaker with the majority of the field preferring to settle off-speed. (5) CHOEGANG LIGER comes off a last start placing in the same race that Tapit Wonderful lined up in. A similar performance here can see the three-year-old fill a place once again.

Selections	(10) Yeonggwanguirunner (9) Tapit Wonderful (6) Gold Magic (5) Choegang Liger

Race 7: Class 5 (1200M) Handicap / KRW 40 Million

(3) COPY THAT has a win and two runner-up finishes among four starts so far. His most recent appearance was on October 31st when he ran a decent 2nd to Pineui Kkum over this trip with a couple of the others who go here back down the track behind him. Seo Seung-un partners him for the first time today and the pair have strong claims to win. (5) THUNDER VEGAS somewhat produced a prominent performance to beat three of these at class and distance a month ago. A repeat is certainly possible but a couple of those he beat last time are capable of better. Notably (2) YEONGGWANGUI START, who made all for his maiden win in August, got a slow start, made up the ground and then weakened. From a better draw today, he should be on pace early and can go much closer. (7) WORLD CHEONSA and (10) MAN OF THE WORLD are others who should be in the hunt.

Selections	(3) Copy That (2) Yeonggwangui Start (5) Thunder Vegas (10) Man Of The World
Next Best	7, 9
Fast Start	2, 5, 7, 10

Race 8: Class 5 (1400M) Allowance / KRW 40 Million

The eighth event on the card is a very competitive affair where punters can make a winning case for more than half the field. (3) B.K JOHN has been consistent early on in his career notching two wins and two minor placings from five starts. He saluted last time out over the 1400m during the Covid relief racing and hence there was no penalty for the win. He can settle in a handy position from barrier three and if things go to plan, he should be hard to beat. (1) EAGLE STAR is another last start winner who will carry the same weight this time around. He took a while to find his rhythm last time out before closing off quickly. Gate one is not necessarily an advantage for Park Jae-I who will ride him this time. (7) JUST WIN did exactly that last time out when saluting over 1200m, The Tamna Ace gelding is likely to work forward from a central draw as per last start. He is yet to finish worse than fourth from his six starts to date. (9) MY QUEEN is another who has been promising at her first three career starts. The Tamna Ace filly has placed at all three starts including a win on debut when clocking a good time. Keep her safe in your selections.

Selections	(3) B.K John (1) Eagle Star (7) Just Win (9) My Queen
Next Best	4, 2
Fast Start	3, 4, 7, 9

Race 9: Class 5 (1400M) Handicap / KRW 40 Million

Very competitive looking class 4 race. (6) ILNYEOM TONGCHEON has finished no worse than 2nd across his four outings so far. He's just got the one win but it came at this distance with a strong front-running performance two starts back. He beat three of these last time out but remains very nicely in the weights and has strong claims. (9) MAN OF THE FIELD is already a winner at this class although that fact does mean he needs to carry significantly more weight today. He looked in good touch in a trial a couple of weeks ago and should be in the hunt again. (3) JEONSEOLUI BULKKOT is proven at both class and distance and he too is a leading contender. Any number of the rest can compete for at least the places with (5) ECHO SUN and (11) BIG PICTURE perhaps looking the most likely.

Selections	(6) Ilnyeom Tongcheon (9) Man Of The Field (3) Jeonseolui Bulkkot (11) Big Picture
Next Best	7, 2
Fast Start	4, 6, 8

Race 10: Class 4 (1600M) Allowance / KRW 60 Million

The Class Four gallopers line up over the mile in the tenth where quite a few of them come out of the same race. (9) DORAON SINSEDAE has grown a leg this year and is finally hitting his straps. The one-time winner from seventeen starts finished third last start when finishing off in good style over 1200m. His win was over the mile back in August suggesting he should look the winner at some point in time. US import (6) NEU DAT handed in a career best performance last start when second behind Raon Yeogeol. He clocked a good time for this grade and retains the 4kg claim of Kim Tae-hyun. (4) NANSAN YEOJE comes out of the same race as Doraon Sinsedae where the filly finished fourth when somewhat one-paced through the line. From gate four she should be able to kick up and sit in the leading division. (5) YEONGGWANGUI SAVE looks next best after finishing fifth in the aforementioned race. He is yet to break through for a maiden win but looks capable of a top-four finish in this assignment.

Selections	(9) Doraon Sinsedae (6) Neu Dat (4) Nansan Yeoje (5) Yeonggwangui Save
Next Best	11, 1
Fast Start	4, 6

Race 11: Class 3 (1400M) Handicap / KRW 75 Million

(4) SYDNEY MANGCHI and (1) RAPID GAME came home 2nd and 3rd respectively when they raced each other – and a few others who go here – on October 16th. Both have the potential to ultimately be racing a significantly higher level than this and both has strong claims. Mo Jun-ho's presence on Sydney Mangchi brings his carried weight down to not much more than that of Rapid Game and he could possibly have the upper hand once again. It would be a surprise if those two don't fill out the quinella but there are a couple of useful others in the gate as well. (9) YONGYEON ran a good 4th on his first try at this class on October 23rd and can be considered for at least a place while the likes of (5) CURLIN TIME and (11) JANGSAN TOKYO should be in the hunt for some minor money too.

Selections	(4) Sydney Mangchi (1) Rapid Game (9) Yongyeon (11) Jangsan Tokyo
