Unlimited Data          Victors Dream          Agostino

Victors Dream has weakened late on over further on two of his three starts and he could be of interest over this trip on his handicap debut off a mark of 60, with the eye-catching booking of Neil Callan to ride. However, with a lack of obvious pace in the race, UNLIMITED DATA may be able to slip the field from stall one. A C&D winner in December, an added 3lb may not stop him repeating the feat here. Agostino could surprise a few on his second start after being gelded.

Red Walls          Animist          Apache Star

Animist has to be of interest despite finishing last of three on his first start since October 2021, but he will need to improve if he wants to get to the front where it matters most. RED WALLS was beaten less than two lengths off 2lb higher at Chelmsford on his last start when possibly sent to the front too soon, but a first-time visor could help his focus and that might see him win for the sixth time. Apache Star and You're Cool are others to consider.

Eden Storm Profit Given Owl Island

Owl Island made a winning debut at Chelmsford 12 days ago, when receiving 7lb from Profit Given (second). An 8lb swing in the weights could see Ismail Mohammed's filly close the gap today, but EDEN STORM is taken to come out on top. The son of Starspangledbanner was a comfortable winner over C&D last month, despite showing clear signs of inexperience, and he could double up with improvement likely. Island Luck represents the powerful Qatar Racing juggernaut and is worth monitoring in the betting ahead of his debut.

Flagman      Mudlahhim      Written Broadcast

FLAGMAN sprang a surprise when winning at odds of 28/1 at Kempton earlier this month, but the former Goldolphin-owned son of Kingman failed to back up at Chepstow 13 days later. However, he did beat a subsequent winner two starts ago and, now back on an artificial surface, he could return to form. Mudlahhim finished a good third over C&D last time and he merits respect from an unchanged mark, while Written Broadcast heads the remainder.
