Outback Boy Juan De Montalban Act Of Wisdom

OUTBACK BOY stepped forward from his racecourse debut at Ascot when running on to finish third at Haydock earlier in the month and the step up in distance promises to unlock further progression from Mark Johnston's colt. Juan De Montalban is likely to have benefited from his first start when fourth at Haydock last month, while a set of cheekpieces are likely to aid the cause of Act Of Wisdom, a brother of Breeders Cup Juvenile Turf hero Line Of Duty.

Hortzadar Plantadream Willie John

Dawaam has been eased 1lb for his latest run on the all-weather and remains open to improvement, though it might be worth siding with HORTZADAR, who won a shade cosily over this trip at Ripon last time and may be capable of shaking off a 3lb rise in the ratings. Plantadream is respected as he bids to back up his Ascot victory under today's pilot, while Willie John has a big run in him at some point and, like Silent Attack, he is entitled to improve for a recent drop in the handicap.

The Lamplighter Lihou Al Dawodiya

Lihou arrives following two cracking efforts at Chester, win and placed, and should make his presence felt, while Al Dawodiya won gamely at Lingfield recently and is likely to show up well again. However, from further down the weights, narrow preference is for THE LAMPLIGHTER. He built on a couple of solid placed efforts, including in class 2 company over course and distance, when scoring comfortably at Kempton and looks sure to play a leading role returning to turf off just a 1lb higher mark.

RACE 4: TOTE FOUNDATION STAKES (LISTED)

Air Pilot Mythical Magic Bullfinch

AIR PILOT won this last year after a long break and could repeat the trick here for Ralph Beckett, who wouldn't have brought the 11-year-old back into training this season if he didn't think the veteran was capable of being competitive at the very least. Mythical Magic lost out to the classy Logician at Doncaster earlier this month but faces nothing of that calibre here, while Bullfinch is unbeaten on synthetic surfaces but has to prove himself on grass.
