RACE 1: BEST FLAT RACES LIVE ON RACING TV NURSERY

Beautiful News Mr Trevor Tashbeeh

BEAUTIFUL NEWS looks the one to beat on her handicap debut. William Haggas' filly has been edging closer to the target with each start thus far and will appreciate stepping back up from 5f. Mr Trevor has shown enough in three novice races to suggest that he can be competitive off an opening mark of 65, while first-time blinkered Tashbeeh also warrants respect cutting back from 7f. Showtime Elle and Avior Star, who are closely matched on their recent Thirsk clash, are other names to note.

Mister Allegro Beechwood Emily Bear Me In Mind

Having his first run after being gelded, MISTER ALLEGRO was an impressive winner over this trip at Kempton recently and a 6lb penalty might not be enough to anchor him if arriving in the same mood. Beechwood Emily was a game 7f winner at Newcastle last time and must enter calculations stepping up in distance off a 3lb higher mark. Bear Me In Mind, who has won two selling races, and Roger Varian's handicap debutant Broad Stripes add further spice to the race.

RACE 3: BRITISH EBF FUTURE STAYERS MAIDEN STAKES (PLUS 10)

Great King Action Hero True Courage

Archie Watson does particularly well with his juvenile runners so any market support for the smartly-bred Action Hero would have to be noted. However, with the benefit of a run under his belt, GREAT KING gets the vote. There was plenty to like about his opening third at Kempton earlier in the month and normal improvement will make him tough to beat. True Courage wasn't beaten far on his debut at York and he's certainly not out of this either.

RACE 4: RACINGTV.COM SELLING STAKES

Tukhoom Sha La La La Lee Good Night Mr Tom

TUKHOOM ran on to finish third at the course last week and the drop in class can see David O'Meara's gelding return to winning ways for the first time since July. RACE 5: RACING TV PROFITS RETURNED TO RACING HANDICAP

Nibras Again Captain Corcoran Longroom

NIBRAS AGAIN was hampered at a crucial point on his latest start at Musselburgh and the six-year-old is just 2lb higher than when scoring at Beverley in July. Paul Midgley's gelding can bounce back on this occasion and get the better of Captain Corcoran, a winner on his penultimate outing at Catterick, and Longroom, a stable companion of the selection who is capable of being in the mix.
