Law Of Nature Dubawi Sands Substantial

Those with experience don't set a daunting standard, with Southwell runner-up Sweet Bertie probably the best of them, so it might be best to concentrate on the newcomers. Charlie Appleby has an excellent record with his juvenile runners so far this year and his LAW OF NATURE, a 240,000-euro purchase who is a half-brother to Group 3 two-year-old winner Devant, could be the answer. Dubawi Sands looks to be Roger Varian's main hope, while William Haggas is also double-handed with Substantial and Alanmar.

RACE 2: MANSIONBET WATCH AND BET CONDITIONS STAKES

Lampang Ainsdale Ropey Guest

Ropey Guest comes out best at these weights and warrants respect, but he had a hard enough race over 1m on soft ground at Ascot 13 days ago and connections now feel the need to fit cheekpieces. Ainsdale is mightily consistent and looks sure to run well, but a chance is taken on LAMPANG. This unexposed son of Dandy Man impressed as a juvenile, winning two of his three starts, and is entitled to improve for his comeback third over 5f at Musselburgh earlier this month. Ventura Lightning has undergone wind surgery since he was last sighted and completes a small but select field.

RACE 3: IRISH STALLION FARMS EBF 'BOSRA SHAM' FILLIES' STAKES (LISTED)

Happy Romance Mishal Star Ventura Diamond

Although her winning run came to an end in the Cheveley Park Stakes over C&D last time, that two-length fourth was arguably a career-best performance for HAPPY ROMANCE and there could be plenty more to come from her. Forecast soft ground is something of an unknown but if handling it, she could prove a cut above these rivals. The hat-trick seeking Mishal Star is improving all the time and looks capable of a big performance, while any further rainfall won't bother Ventura Diamond or Worldly Wise, who both won on heavy ground last time.
