Prior to that, she impressed when winning a maiden at Bordeaux Le Bouscat in early March. YAGGERA (5) rates the main danger. She can be forgiven her latest effort and is better judged on her runner-up finish in a Class 3 contest at Angers in early May, which gives her solid claims. LE LEGIONNAIRE (3) looks best of the rest and can be involved.

8. ORYA - Won on her second start over 1500m in a maiden race at Tarbes on May 11. She is lightly raced and has more to come although this could be challenging

Summary: PERSIAN IMP CEN (5) could be the answer to this competitive affair. He likes to race close to the pace and this could be an ideal opportunity to get back in the winner's enclosure. His main threat could be ALHAMA RIVER (2), who won on the only run this year at Bordeaux Le Bouscat in early April and has a lot more to come. TESTIFY (3) is the sensible option for the each-way backers to latch on to, and ARLONG FAL (4) looks best of the remainder.

Summary: MATAKI (2), a Class 2 winner last year, ran well enough in a Class 2 contest in late May to suggest he can take a race of this nature. The main threat could come from RUBENESQUE (3), who produced a solid runner-up effort in a handicap at Compiègne over 1,400 metres on May 25 and should make the selection work hard. JOUR DE COEUR (1) also merits respect. She won a claiming race in April and has continued to perform with credit since that success. CHOCOLATE CHEETAH (5) heads the rest.

Summary: ROCAMBOLESQUE (7) ran a good race to be fourth last time out over 1200m at Saint-Cloud earlier this month and could be the best option in this tricky handicap. MACANELLA (6) could be the one to make the selection work hard for the win. She was a creditable third two runs back and has warrants respect. GARMi (12) has dropped in the handicap and can be effective off her current rating and make the top three. ZASTER FOR ALL (10) is another to keep onside.

The main threat could come from BURNING HEART (1), who has been admirably consistent of late and cannot be ruled out of the finish. She looks the obvious danger to the selection. DARIYA KA DE SAON (9) won two runs back at Toulouse on May 21 and can make her presence felt. HONG KONG STAR (11) looks best of the remainder.
