Summary: RAQEEBB (16) visited the track and trip last time out and was not disgraced when running seventh. He certainly has the accolades to perform better and can polish up on his last attempt. CELESTIAL (11) is a two time winner from seven starts and can be exonerated for his recent efforts. He has his chance to put his best foot forward here on ability. CENTRAL PARK WEST (12) sparked the eye when running second over the distance and if the top choices fluff their lines, this soldier could take full advantage. STANGHELI (13) may be erratic but is one that is capable if wise up to the task. STAR OF THE NIGHT (9) wraps up the mix.
