16. LORD POST OFFICE - Knocking hard at the door and was runner-up in a handicap over this course and distance on 16 April. Can contest the finish once again

Summary: FOUR FOUR FOUR (1) put a below-par run behind him last time and, on his first outing with Mickaël Barzalona, looks set to go very close if building on that effort. Interestingly, Maxime Guyon, who partnered the selection last time, now switches to AUTUMN TWILIGHT (8)—a combination that has already enjoyed notable success and commands plenty of respect. LUNALA (3) is well drawn and could bounce back to her best from this favourable draw. AIR DE SAMBA (12) is worth another chance and can't be ruled out. D DAY MAN (13) can continue on an upward trajectory.

With that run under his belt, he looks primed to go very close. The consistent WEST WIND BLOWS (1) has made the frame on all three visits to ParisLongchamp and crosses the Channel with leading claims once again. Supplemented for the race, ORACLE (5) showed as a three-year-old that he stays this 2,400m trip well and could have a say. ## SUNDAY, 03/05/26

Summary: ANOTHER LIGHT (6) made a winning return after a long absence and looks to have plenty of improvement still to come. Lack of experience at this level is the slight concern, but her rating gives her every chance. Trained by Mario Baratti, both AURA (13)—impressive on her comeback—and GALA (2), whose form lines read particularly strong, command serious respect and hold leading claims on paper. TROPHANE (5) appears to have taken a step forward over the winter and may be capable of defying the rise in the weights. DARI RIVER (3) is one to consider if getting the right race setup, as she possesses a sharp turn of foot.
