Summary: ZIA AGNESE (1) was nothing short of dominant last time out and could be hard to oppose on the basis of her latest victory. She is a filly that is improving nicely and looks to be heading in the right direction. HUNTER'S LUCK (2) is another improving sort that appears to be the immediate threat to the favorite and can produce a solid performance to go close. INSPIRED IDEA (3) finished behind ZIA AGNESE (1) last time out and will likely have to settle for a minor spot once again. BRAVO BAY (4) is best of the rest.

RIP (12) meets Anonyme on 2kgs better terms which could see him turning the form around and needs to be respected. ZYGFRYD (6) isn't the most reliable sort but is very capable of getting involved. PRETTY WARRIOR (16) is a well tried maiden that continues to run well without winning and should be in the money.

Summary: Despite his soundness issues, ALPENJAGER (4) retains considerable ability and could be worth siding with on his reappearance after a 7-month absence. ORION ROCK (1) caught the eye in a course-and-distance claimer last month and will make life difficult for the selection if reproducing a similar performance. WURFGEIST (3), AMARENA DODVILLE (7) and AFF UN ZO (5) complete the shortlist.

17. ANAHERA - Anthony Crastus rides this Elvstroem filly on debut for owner-trainer Alexandre Fracas. One to watch

Summary: MULTIPLE CHOICE (9) finished an encouraging 4th at Deauville last month in her first PSF appearance and she needn't improve much to play a leading role here. Improving ROYAL CADEAU (3), with Augustin Madamet in the irons, and ANUQUET (1), whose 7th behind the selection at Deauville doesn't accurately reflect his ability, seem best equipped to complete the podium places, although the returning ZELICA (10) and experienced GARVEY (4) could have something to say about that.

4. LADY LOU - Inconsistent but versatile mare with references in handicaps on both surfaces off higher marks. Shouldn't be hastily condemned for finishing 10th over 2500m in a PSF handicap at Deauville on 23 December

Summary: Versatile hard-knocker ASLAN SENORA (5) changed hands soon after finishing 6th at Deauville in late November but he may well repay the faith of his new connections as this seems an ideal opportunity to reconnect with success. Maryline Eon takes 1,5kg off the back of last-start winner LOU BALICOT (9) who, as a result, should remain competitive for race honours. LANDARYNA (8), fast-finisher OSER (12) and hard-knocking AERION (6), whose last start was encouraging, are others with legitimate podium aspirations.
