|---|----------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1 | TANGO DANCER  | Coming off a win at same distance on 2 July; remains in same class and rates a strong chance. |
| 5 | WESTERN       | Drawn well and is among the chances.                                                          |
| 6 | DAENERYS LIPS | Having first start and watch the betting odds.                                                |
| 3 | FIDALGO BRAVO | Having first start and betting market will be the best guide.                                 |

RACE 2 5:46 PM | EUR18,000 | MUNICH | 1400m

|   |                      |                                                                                                                                   |
|---|----------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 5 | FLOW OF EARTH | 1600m 4YO+ win on 1 May suggests effectiveness on slightly longer trip; drops back to 1400m A3 here and can follow up.            |
| 2 | AEQUINOCTIUM  | Solid fourth over this trip on 6 June; prior 1600m wins suggest strength if improving.                                            |
| 7 | SEE ARES      | Previous 1400m D3 win on 23 May offers encouragement; recent 1600m Condition run was below that standard, but is not out of this. |
| 1 | GARFIELD      | Multiple wins at this trip. Strong 1300m second suggests competitive chance.                                                      |

|   |                    |                                                                                                                                                            |
|---|--------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 4 | RARATCHEQUE | Distance suits with two Condition wins over similar trips this year; consistent A4 Top-three efforts suggest competitive chance.                           |
| 5 | TIA SOPHIA  | Earlier third at this trip and recent 1900m second suggesting strong current form and versatility.                                                         |
| 9 | ALBERTINA   | Recent 1800-1850m 4YO+ and A4 Top-three finishes suggest solid staying form, including a second last start. Drops slightly in distance and can have a say. |
| 1 | DJARIYA     | Won over 1500m A3 on 22 June, and second over 1600m Condition prior. Rising in class but profiles strongly.                                                |

RACE 4 6:50 PM | EUR30,000 | MUNICH | 1400m

|    |                         |                                                                                                                                       |
|----|-------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 3  | BACARDA          | Recent 1200m Top-three efforts including a second at Listed last start. Strong 1600m and 1400m form suggests effective rise in class. |
| 10 | LADY LIVA        | Dropping back from recent 1600m runs; solid Top 3 Condition form suggests she can handle this class rise.                             |
| 2  | AYADA            | Solid 1600m Listed and Group 3 efforts recently. Prior 1400m Condition win suggests effective drop in class.                          |
| 5  | EDERGOLE'S ANGEL | Distance suits after 1200m A3 win on 14 May; prior 1600m Condition success suggests stamina. Place.                                   |

RACE 5 7:20 PM | EUR18,000 | MUNICH | 2200m

|    |                        |                                                                                                                             |
|----|------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 14 | MASTER OF LIGHT | Recent strong staying wins over 2350m Condition and 2400m A3; up in class but progressing well and can follow up.           |
| 12 | ARABIA          | Strong recent 1700m-1800m D3 Top 2 form suggests distance should suit; rises to A3 and appears capable of further progress. |
| 15 | MINEOLA         | Won over 2000m on 16 May before fair 2100m A3 effort last start. Major contender.                                           |
| 5  | FOUR SEASONS    | 2200m D3 win on 25 May suggests distance should suit. Unplaced in 2400m Group 1 last start. Freshen up and can go close.    |

RACE 6 8:10 PM | EUR155,000 | MUNICH | 2000m

|    |                          |                                                                                                                                                     |
|----|--------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 10 | TIMEFORSHOWCASING | Proven 1600m performer stepping to 2000m Group 1; multiple wins in Condition suggest talent, though recent seventh needs improvement. Can surprise. |
| 7  | SANTAGADA         | Strong second over 2400m Group 2 last start. Proven at this trip and merits obvious consideration.                                                  |
| 5  | BELLA SINFONIA    | 2000m Condition winner on 7 June; proven 1600-2000m Top-two form, tackling stronger class now and can have a breakthrough.                          |
| 3  | WILKO             | Strong recent 2000m and 2200m Top-three form, including a 2000m Listed win, suggests suitability for this.                                          |

RACE 7 8:25 PM | EUR5,000 | BAD HARZBURG | 2000m

|   |                         |                                                                                                                                |
|---|-------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1 | ABSACKER         | Third over 2000m and 1800m 4YO+ on the last two starts. Holds solid Top-three prospects again.                                 |
| 2 | VINO SAURO       | Recent second over 1550m suggests ability; previous 2200m Condition runs were mixed, so slight class drop could help progress. |
| 3 | OPEN TO QUESTION | Dropping back from recent 3800m Condition runs; earlier 1900m third suggests this distance may help.                           |
| 4 | TABASCO STAR     | Unplaced over 1550m and 2200m recently. Needs sharp improvement to feature in this.                                            |

RACE 8 8:50 PM | EUR22,000 | MUNICH | 1600m

|   |                       |                                                                                                                        |
|---|-----------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 7 | SHEJTAN        | Proven 1600–1850m winner; strong 1850m Condition win on 11 July last start. Capable of following up.                   |
| 4 | MISTER PHOENIX | Holding A2 form with a second over this trip last start. Earlier 1600m and 1750m wins suggest another bold showing.    |
| 3 | FREIGEIST      | Multiple recent Top-three finishes including a win on 6 June and 25 April; slight improvement restores winning claims. |
| 2 | WEST MAN       | Solid second-placings over 1400m–1600m this year; recent fifth suggests minor improvement could bring Top-three.       |

RACE 9 9:25 PM | EUR15,000 | MUNICH | 1300m

|   |                        |                                                                                                                                                                          |
|---|------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 5 | SILVER IMPACT   | Strong 1400m D3 form including a win and second this year. Last run over Group 2 1600m was forgivable. Returns to a more suitable class today and is capable of scoring. |
| 7 | RUE MICHEL ANGE | Recent fourth in 1200m Condition suggests competitiveness, though rise to D3 may demand improvement.                                                                     |
| 6 | SONIC BOOM      | Earlier 1500m D3 win offers encouragement; recent Group 2 and Group 3 runs were fair, drop in class and shorter trip looks positive.                                     |
| 1 | BACKES          | Dropping back from recent 1600m runs; earlier 1600m Condition win suggests some class relief could help. Can build on recent efforts.                                    |

RACE 10 9:40 PM | EUR6,000 | BAD HARZBURG | 2000m

|   |                      |                                                                                                                                  |
|---|----------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1 | SUGAR BABY    | Solid win over 1800m A3 last start offers encouragement; strong recent Top-three form suggests capability despite rise in class. |
| 4 | MIAIMAOU      | Multiple solid 2000m Condition runs; recent 2200m A4 win suggests stamina, just needs to rebound from latest.                    |
| 3 | MASIBA        | Recent 2000m 4YO+ win offers encouragement; strong Top-three form up to 1850m suggests slight class rise is manageable.          |
| 5 | UNEX FRIENDLY | Recent 1850–2050m form was fair, but unplaced A4 and Condition efforts suggest improvement needed to feature.                    |

RACE 11 10:05 PM | EUR15,500 | MUNICH | 2000m

|    |                         |                                                                                                                                      |
|----|-------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 3  | VENEZIANA        | Consecutive second-placings over this trip on 22 June and 23 May. Can get one better.                                                |
| 7  | SANTINO CORLEONE | Distance suits with recent second and third in A4 suggesting progress; back to this class from tougher 2000m Condition. Can feature. |
| 11 | WALDBLUES        | Recent 1400–1600m D3 Top-three finishes including a third over 1600m on 4 July last start. Steps up in trip now and can surprise.    |
| 1  | GUILIN           | Recent 1900m second on 10 July offers encouragement; previous 1600m Condition runs were mixed. Capable of improvement.               |

RACE 12    10:55 PM | EUR6,150 | BAD HARZBURG | 1200m

|   |                     |                                                                                                                   |
|---|---------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1 | IMPELLING    | Distance suits with recent win and strong fourth at this trip. Capable of following up.                           |
| 2 | POWERSTOWN   | Encouraging third over this trip on 18 July. Drops from A3 and Condition races suggests this class is manageable. |
| 5 | TOMMORAH     | Second over 1000m on 4 June suggests sprint trip is ideal. Can feature if fit.                                    |
| 4 | MANDY'S GIRL | Recent unplaced runs at 1000–1300m suggest she needs clear improvement. Freshen up and can have a say.            |

RACE 13    11:25 PM | EUR6,000 | BAD HARZBURG | 2400m

|   |                    |                                                                                                                                    |
|---|--------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 3 | SAPRISTI    | Recent 2200m second and prior 2500m win indicate proven stamina. Can return to winning ways.                                       |
| 1 | ARTURO      | 2800m win on 19 July last start suggests distance suits. Prior 2400m A4 fourth on 19 April suggests competitive prospects.         |
| 5 | DICKSON     | Solid fourth over 2800m on 4 June; earlier 2350m win suggests staying potential.                                                   |
| 2 | LA VIRGINIE | Distance suits her staying profile, but recent 2000–2200m D3 runs were well-beaten; needs marked improvement rising to this class. |

RACE 14    11:55 PM | EUR6,000 | BAD HARZBURG | 1550m

|   |                      |                                                                                                                    |
|---|----------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 5 | DIAMOND GOLD  | Unplaced runs since March suggest significant improvement is required to feature. Can surprise with progress.      |
| 3 | ZNOOP DIGGER  | Recent 2000m and 1900m A4 wins suggest strong claims if adapting to shorter. Hard to ignore.                       |
| 1 | ALUNIS        | Strong second over 1850m on 30 May; shorter trip may spark further improvement.                                    |
| 4 | OCEAN DIAMOND | Prior third over this trip on 14 May and 1500m Top-three in June; below-par recently. Freshen up and can go close. |
