DASH POWER - EYE OF THE WATER - MISHY'S STAR

Race Preview: This isn't the deepest race and it might pay to side with DASH POWER. As is par for the course in events of this type, it is hard to put maximum faith in any. However, this gelding hit the woodwork over an extended mile here on his penultimate start and may appreciate an ease in class. Eye Of The Water has been running with credit lately and is one of the more appealing options. The lightly-raced Mishy's Star has fewer blemishes than many.

KODEBREAKER - EVOLUIR - AMERICAN ROSE

Race Preview: KODEBREAKER didn't see out the mile at Southwell last time but he finished a creditable second over C&D on his previous start. Michael Herrington's gelding drops into classified company for the first time since August and that, coupled with having a strong chance at the weights, could allow him to record an overdue success. Evoluir is noted, while American Rose also warrants closer inspection.

VITALLINE - AIM FOR THE BULL - AL BAAHY

Race Preview: Kempton winner VITALLINE had excuses at Lingfield a fortnight ago, as such it was creditable that he was able to finish within four lengths of the winner. Handily drawn in stall three today, as well as being eased into a classified event, he is fancied to make a swift return to the winner's circle. Aim For The Bull is often thereabouts and minor honours could be on the cards again. Al Baahy also competes on favourable terms.

ALBA GU BRATH - ABANDO - POOR RELATION

Race Preview: ALBA GU BRATH has finished second on both previous starts but was bettered by horses of fair potential on those occasions and may be able to make it third-time lucky. The Charlie Johnston-trained colt is open to more progression than the 90-rated Abando, who was highly tried during his time in Germany but looks flattered by that rating based on his two starts for his current yard. Poor Relation and Daddy Chill complete the shortlist.
