RACE 1: PRICEDUP.BET EBF NOVICE STAKES (GBB RACE) (CLASS 5) (2YO ONLY)

FLYING COMET - LIL BROTHER - G'EMMETHEGREENLITE

Race Preview: Lil Brother nearly pulled off a 50/1 shock when second at Bath on his only start and is likely to enter calculations. G'Emmethegreenlite caught the eye when running on into fourth at Hamilton after a slow start and he can only improve for that experience, but newcomer FLYING COMET gets the nod. Bought for 350,000 euros at the Breeze-up sales, the Havana Grey colt certainly looks the part and he could make a winning start to his career for the Crisfords.

SNOW BERRY - MRS TRUMP - FREE PIC

Race Preview: SNOW BERRY has a good record here, with three wins and three places, and showed signs of a return to her best when a half-length second over course and distance last month. Upped 2lb for that, she could still prove good enough in this field. Free Pic intrigues having weakened over further on all three starts and she makes her handicap debut off a lowly mark, but Mrs Trump looks a far bigger danger. Only beaten a neck at Beverley in May, a repeat of that display would see the five-year-old in the mix.

SEA FORCE - CAMERON HIGHLANDER - GIVE ME THE NIGHT

Race Preview: SEA FORCE should prove popular here after finishing second on both starts this year when beaten a neck at Doncaster and a head at Newbury over seven furlongs. As a son of Sea The Stars, the step up in trip may bring improvement. Cameron Highlander seems his biggest rival after a highly promising debut in third at Newcastle for the Coles, leaving Give Me The Night as a horse with plenty of potential for Mark Rimell and he could be the surprise package.

RACE 4: PRICEDUP PUSHES HANDICAP (CLASS 4) (4YO PLUS)

MYSTERYOFTHESANDS - A MAJOR PAYNE - WAITING FOR LOVE

Race Preview: MYSTERYOFTHESANDS is an infrequent winner in truth but, having won at Beverley on his penultimate start, he was far from discredited when fifth in warm York contest latest. This isn't as competitive and Tim Easterby's charge could notch up another success, although A Major Payne will be a real threat judged on his recent Kempton second. Waiting For Love enters handicaps from a potentially workable mark and is of interest on his first outing since December.
