Summary: THE FRENCH SON (2) is a decent sort on breeding and if the experience is not needed, he will surely give a good account of himself. SHAMASSA (6) is a beautifully bred horse that has Group races running through her DNA and has the requirements to produce a debut winning performance. LIGHT MELODY (10) holds huge contentions here based off a sparkling pedigree line. CELTIC FURY (1) completes the top four mix to make a wise debut.

15. LADY MELISSA - This filly is by Churchill and out of an unraced mare. Top connections in red hot form and must be closely monitored

Summary: LADY MELISSA (15) is a pleasing filly who is by the stunning sire, Churchill and if the genetics of the sire is dominant in her genes, she could see herself relishing her opponents. SIYLHETA (14) is out of the mare which was a one time winner over 1400m and this filly could be anything in the making and should be respected. DAY DREAMING (11) ran a cracker in her penultimate start when finishing second on debut and a repetition of that run will make her a massive runner. Summary: EMBIEZ (14) has been steadily improving with each outing and produced a pleasing finish last time out which should hold him in good stead heading into this event. DSCHINGIS RIVER (5) was in behind the top pick at his latest outing and can get closer with some weight off the back. He appears to be the main danger. LARWA (7) failed to fire up last time out and shouldn't be dismissed in this contest as she is more than capable of posing as a threat. DIYASHAL (3) has been successful over the hurdles having won three times but is back on the flat where he remains a maiden but has the form to earn.

Summary: ASENSEOFSERENITY (4) has had three educational runs to date and looks ready to win in what appears to be a winnable race that lacks depth. SUCH A LOVELY DAY (7) is a filly who steps out on debut with absolutely no weight on the back which could see her running very well. CAPOUCHINE (6) is from a sire that has already had success from a few of his progeny and this filly could be the next to have a positive impact on those stats. WOODWOODED (3) is bred to be speedy and needs to be watched carefully.
