RACE 1: EBF MAIDEN STAKES (GBB RACE)

Mackenzie Rose

Bin Hayyan

Chelsea Annie

The form of Bin Hayyan's two outings have been handsomely advertised and the Dark Angel colt should be thereabouts if building on his latest outing. Although, a chance is taken on MACKENZIE ROSE, who had a torrid time of it on debut at Brighton. After missing the break, the filly took a keen hold and appeared unbalanced for the duration of the the race. To make matters worse, she was hampered close home and had to be eased down. The Mark Johnston-trained filly may fare better in this contest, while Chelsea Annie also merits consideration.

RACE 2:SUMMER MINI BREAK AT WESTERNHOUSEHOTEL HANDICAP

State Of Bliss

Noble Crusade

Sandret

Noble Crusade warrants plenty of attention as he won his maiden well at Carlisle and was far from disgraced when third under a penalty at Redcar last time. A mark of 78 might underestimate him on his handicap bow and he's a danger to all if it does, but it might be worth siding with the proven handicap form of STATE OF BLISS. A solid third off today's mark over a mile at Leicester last time, Mark Johnston's charge could be better for this step up in trip. Ayr Poet is consistent enough to have his say, while Sandret has acquitted himself well enough in two handicaps over this distance recently.

RACE 3:AFTERNOON TEA AT WESTERN HOUSE HOTEL HANDICAP

Capla Lass

Royal Countess

Castle View

Royal Countess brings winning C&D form to the table and has run well off a 1lb higher mark in three starts here so far this year. She is the top-rated performer in this line-up and looks sure to run well, but a chance is taken on the less-exposed CAPLA LASS. The three-year-old daughter of Garswood was an eye-catching fifth on her seasonal return over 1m at Musselburgh six days ago (hampered before Joanna Mason dropped her whip) and she may improve for this longer trip. Castle View also holds claims on his handicap debut.

RACE 4: BOOK FOR QTS LADIES NIGHT HANDICAP

John Jasper

Mi Capricho

Coviglia

The impression that JOHN JASPER created when fifth at Haydock last time was particularly noteworthy, travelling nicely before failing to see daylight on a number of occasions. The drop in trip here is unlikely to cause any problems and, granted more luck in running this time, he looks capable of breaking his maiden. Last-time-out course winner Mi Capricho will have no problem moving back up a furlong and is feared, while Coviglia showed distinct promise on his first start for this yard at Hamilton last month and is also respected.

8 LITTLE MISS MOO Unplaced in all six starts. Well beaten at 66-1 behind Junoesque when 11th of 13 on her latest outing at Nottingham over 1m 2f (good to firm) last month.

RACE 5: WESTERN HOUSE HOTEL HANDICAP

Headingley

Summa Peto

Bulls Aye

A case can be made for all of these but preference is for HEADINGLEY, who bounced back to form when finishing third at Doncaster last time. That form was boosted when the second won earlier this week and the application of first-time blinkers may help this three-year-old. Summa Peto failed to fire at Royal Ascot but his previous form is very encouraging, including a maiden win over this C&D. Bulls Aye is another unexposed type, while Shelir and Redarna are more than capable when at their best.

NO. HORSE NAME

1 SHELIR He has won three times from 7f to 1m on ground varying from good to yielding. Beaten 13l behind Highfield Princess at 33-1 when 13th of 28 on his latest outing at Ascot over 7f (good to firm) last month.
