WINTER PEARL, FORT RED, POLTERGEIST and CHARLIE MALONE are closely matched on the form of a recent meeting in a similar contest, and there should be little between that quartet on these revised terms. TRANSACT and SWIFT ACTION arrive in good form and ought to be competitive once more, though preference is for the course-and-distance former who drops in class.

Selections:

#1 Transact, #4 Swift Action, #6 Winter Pearl, #7 Fort Red

The latter is a proven frontrunner who could have things his own way again. CORONATION TIME is held on that form, but capable of better and shouldn't be discounted. MISTER MONOCLE thrives on rain-affected ground and ought to play a leading role if getting those conditions again.

Kenilworth, 05.04.2023, Race 5, Gallops, 1400m, Turf, R200.000, 15:00GMT+2

Race Summary: Good race. ROYAL AUSSIE landed a big payday in the Gold Rush after finishing fourth in the Grade 1 Cape Guineas and will be hard to beat on the strength of that form. Stablemate TOUT A FAIT is consistent and capable of giving cheek in receipt of 4,5kg. WE'RE JAMMING is probably better over slightly shorter but warrants respect nonetheless. FIFTY FIVER could have more to offer after gelding. FIREALLEY and SPEED MACHINE have earning potential too.

Race Summary: Good race. Stablemates KWINTA'S LIGHT and PACIFIC GREEN are course-and-distance suited, so ought to be competitive. GIMME'S LASSIE and GOLDEN HOSTESS are versatile and have strong feature-race form to their name. Both are capable over this shorter trip and, as such, are likely to play a role. HAPPY CHANCE could have a say if ready to go after a layoff.

Selections:

#2 Kwinta's Light, #4 Gimme's Lassie, #6 Golden Hostess, #3 Pacific Green

Kenilworth, 05.04.2023, Race 7, Gallops, 1100m, Turf, R200.000, 16:10GMT+2

IRISH MORNING has been sparingly raced but could be better than rated and does run well fresh, so could pose a threat.
