20,100

1. DERAWAR - Finished 7th in a Listed race at Parislongchamp last time over 2400m on May 14th, and a win before that on April 20th over 2000m. Lightly raced and has a good deal more to come

2. COLBERT -

3. NABAB ' K - Two wins this year, the latter over 2000m in a handicap at Lyon Parilly on May 8th. Improving and has to be considered

4. YOKOZUNA - Got off the mark over 2500m at Nort-Sur-Erdre on his latest start on April 5th. More needed in a better race

5. CUELLAR - Won over 3000m at Dieppe in a maiden race on May 16th on his third run. Improving and stays well and can be involved

6. VICTOIRE MAGIQUE - Finished 6th last time over 2400m in a Listed race at Parislongchamp on May 14th, 2nd before that in a Class 2 in late April. Player

7. CRYSTAL BAY - Creditable 5th in a Class 1 race over 2400m at Saint-Cloud on April 17th last time and a win before that at Machecoul in March over 2350m. Might find a few too smart

Summary: DERAWAR (1) was not subjected to a hard race when finding Listed company beyond him at ParisLongchamp in May. His previous success at Fontainebleau was an encouraging performance, and this colt still appears to have significant scope for improvement. VICTOIRE MAGIQUE (6) looks the principal danger. He finished sixth in the same Listed contest when they met last month and had previously posted some strong form. NABAB K (3) is progressing with each run and cannot be overlooked. CUELLAR (5) appeals as the best of the remainder.

Summary: STREET CRY STAR (9) boasts an appealing pedigree. Her grand dam, Queen's Logic, was an unbeaten five-time winner, including the Cheveley Park Stakes (Gr.1) and two Group 2 contests. With such bloodlines, she can make a winning debut. VILLA MONCEAU (4) has shown plenty of promise on the PSF and is worthy of close consideration now switching to turf. MARBELLESA (8) ran a solid race when third at Chantilly and holds strong place claims. DELAJA (6) is best forgiven her latest effort and judged instead on her encouraging third at Saint-Cloud two starts ago.

Summary: PUERTO MADERO (6) has been edging closer to a win in recent outings and looks ready to strike. DAZZLE AT DAWN (13) finished strongly at Tarbes and, with a favourable draw, could reverse recent form with SEDITION (4). SEDITION (4) carries a penalty for that success but is not out of it. TOUQUETOISE (11) is in good heart and returns to handicap company on a workable mark, making her another possible winner.
