RACE 1:IRISH STALLION FARMS EBF MEDIAN AUCTION MAIDEN

Dabana Warren Beach Amanirenas

DABANA was useful as a juvenile and should improve for her Cork reappearance run last month. She disappointed on her final start as a juvenile and while also well held on reappearance, both those races were on testing ground and she did run to the line at Cork, with the form being strong (the winner is smart, the fourth won next time). First-time blinkers are applied to Warren Beach and while rated 95 following his encouraging Eyrefield Stakes run last October, was well held by a high-class winner at Dundalk and was also well enough held when third here recently. Amanirenas has run two solid races in defeat but might bump into a few too strong. Chestnutter runs in first-time blinkers and was well held (when slightly hampered) at Sligo.

RACE 2: GOLF AT GOWRAN PARK HANDICAP

Eighty Eight Shaky Operator Cuala Bula

EIGHTY EIGHT showed big improvement when second on handicap debut over a mile here last month. Ordinary as a juvenile, he stayed on from off the pace last month and should cope with a 4lb rise and is proven on easy ground. Shaky Operator, fourth last in last month's race, is 4lb better off the with the selection and has claims having shown handicap form at the Curragh last October and is suited by easy ground. Colin Keane rides Cuala Buala, which showed improvement on her reappearance over a shorter trip while Helpmeout also showed improvement on Navan reappearance but drops back markedly in trip. Lady Arwen is interesting on handicap debut having run well at Sligo while all-weather winner Patrick Street makes his turf debut. Jupiter Express disappointed on soft ground last weekend.

RACE 4:IRISH STALLION FARMS EBF FILLIES HANDICAP

Needle Lace Aurora Princess Dedillon

NEEDLE LACE won a maiden last month, has easy-ground form and could win, reverting to a handicap, from her revised 80 rating. Ex-French and useful at 1m4f in the UK, she has shown good form over shorter trips recently with her Limerick winning form being boosted by the runner-up subsequently being Premier Handicap-placed. Last-time-out winners Aurora Princess, Dedillon (officially 1lb well-in for her Cork win) and Red Heel have won four races each and while all are in form, they compete from the peak of their handicap powers. You Owe Me Money, in contrast, has yet to win but has shown the right signs in handicap recently and ran well at this distance in March. Another maiden New York Girl has handicap form and likes easy ground but might bump into a few.
