RACE 1: EVENTMASTERS.CO.UK BRITISH EBF NOVICE STAKES (GBB RACE)

Jadhlaan          Lincoln Dream          Brazen Best

The newcomers are very hard to gauge so it may be best to stick with experience, and if JADHLAAN takes to this quicker surface, then he should prove too good for the rest. Third on debut and second last time out, beaten less than a length each time, he is a very worthy favourite. Lincoln Dream will do better if she settles but with more runners here than on her debut she should get the chance to find some cover, while Brazen Best looked speedy at Beverley before fading late on and could surprise a few.

NO.      HORSE NAME

RACE 2: CHURCHILL TYRES HANDICAP

Desert Emperor          Regal Mirage          Civil Law

Regal Mirage has been running consistently well and is likely to be in the shake-up again, while Civil Law must enter calculations following his facile victory on the Tapeta at Newcastle. However, a chance is taken on handicap debutant DESERT EMPEROR, who represents a stable in red-hot form at present. The Camelot gelding wasn't beaten far on his first couple of starts over this trip and just looked a little outpaced over an extended 1m at Wolverhampton last time. Back up in distance, off a fair opening mark of 77, he could run a big race.

RACE 3:SKF ROUS SELLING STAKES

All In Aladdin

Black Hill Storm

Tareekh

A competitive renewal of this contest but the vote goes to TAREEKH, who has improved with every start to date and he got off the mark in maiden over 6f at Thirsk eight days ago. If he can find further improvement then the son of Dandy Man will be hard to beat. Black Hill Storm is a proven winner at this level and he is an obvious threat to the selection. Others to consider are All In Aladdin, Charlie De Rio and Stardust Gambler.

RACE 4: BRITISH EBF SUPPORTING RACING WITH PRIDE FILLIES' HANDICAP

Mejthaam

Gale Force Maya

Mid Winster

Gale Force Maya failed to land a blow in Listed company last weekend, but her form before that marks her out as one to consider here. Paul Midgely saddles the very consistent Mid Winster and Ballintoy Harbour, who was a place behind the in-form Noorban (second), when third at Redcar recently. That trio all make some appeal, but preference is for MEJTHAAM, who opened her account with a game success in novice company at Wolverhampton and could be tough to stop following up now joining the handicap ranks.
