La Hulotte Lower Street Engrave

It was only a neck and a short-head that separated Lower Street (first) and LA HULOTTE (third) when they met at Kempton in November and it is the latter who is fancied to come out on top here courtesy of an 8lb pull at the weights. Andrew Balding's mare will likely appreciate this step back up in trip and the five-year-old is preferred to the consistent Engrave, who has only once been outside the first two in her last five outings.

RACE 2: MANSIONBET PROUD PARTNERS OF THE AWC HANDICAP

Eternal Light Oud Metha Bridge Cusack

The suggestion is the unexposed ETERNAL LIGHT, who ran an eye-catching race on handicap debut at Wolverhampton last month when narrowly behind the reopposing Lenny's Spirit. The daughter of New Approach has been dropped 1lb since and she is taken to master the likes of recent C&D winner Oud Metha Bridge and the capable Clipsham Tiger. A nose separated Cusack (first) and Masqool (second) when they met over C&D last month and both are likely to enter the reckoning again.

Ducal Crown Albayaader Naasma

Expectations were high for DUCAL CROWN on debut at Kempton last month and, despite showing plenty of greenness, Andrew Balding's filly finished off her race well giving the impression that there would be improvement forthcoming. That may be enough to claim the spoils here as she looks to fend off the challenge of French recruit Albayaader and Dark Enchantment, who ran with credit on her racecourse bow. Of the newcomers, Naasma stands out with her dam having won in both Group 1 company and on debut.

Social Contact Pluperfect Kissininthebackrow

SOCIAL CONTACT took a step forward when she was just headed in the closing stages to finish second at Wolverhampton last month. The daughter of Night Of Thunder is likely to be ridden prominently and this drop back in trip from an extended 1m looks to be a positive move. Pluperfect took a step in the right direction when finishing fourth at Kempton and she looks to be the main threat to the selection, while cases can also be made for Kissinthebackrow and Makarova.

RACE 5: MANSIONBET BEATEN BY A HEAD HANDICAP

Thaayer Madrinho Abnaa

The tentative vote goes to THAAYER, who has returned to form recently. The seven-year-old gelding is 1lb lower than his last winning mark and he is likely to appreciate the return to this easier grade. Madrinho bounced back to form when scoring at Wolverhampton last month and he is likely to be in the mix here, while Abnaa, Breckland and Light Lily complete the shortlist.
