RACE 1: NORTHERN COMMERCIALS - SERVICE, SALES & PARTS NOVICE STAKES (GBB RACE)

Clarets Glory Profit And Loss Purple Bling

CLARETS GLORY took a decent step forward from his debut when scoring over C&D earlier in the month and the son of Cotai Glory is taken to back that performance up under a penalty. Profit And Loss has shaped well on his two starts to date, including when placed at York, and he is likely to enter calculations once again. Others to note include Purple Bling and newcomer Mariha.

RACE 2: NAPOLEONS CASINO BRADFORD HANDICAP

Liberation Point Seasett Ace Rothstein

LIBERATION POINT got off the mark on his debut for Mick Appleby at Ripon last month and the four-year-old warrants plenty of respect making his handicap debut at a course where he filled the runner-up spot on his sole outing last season. Seasett appeared to be going places earlier in the season and remains an interesting type as he returns from nearly two months off the track, while Ace Rothstein may benefit from a return to turf based on his Yarmouth victory two starts ago.

CRAZY LUCK arrives here having finished second on her last three starts in competitive handicaps and Rod Millman's filly has been found a suitable opportunity to return to winning ways. Silent Flame was behind the selection when third at Salisbury earlier in the month and her consistency is likely to see her being competitive once again, while the drop in trip might yield some improvement from Algheed.
