SEA NYMPH (6), who finished about a length ahead of him in a Class 1 contest at Bordeaux Le Bouscat last time, looks the main danger. BASQUIAT (3) is improving steadily and bids for a hat-trick, while EASY AS PIE (5), a debut course winner, appeals best of the remainder.

- 14. ANTINORI - Two below par runs this year, well beaten at Dax over 2300m on the most recent on May 1st. Hard to recommend

Summary: MARSOUL (7) ran with a good amount of promise at Dax on debut when second on May 1st in a conditions race. He can go one place better this time. ASSAD AL SHAHANIA (8) looks like the main threat, he was just over a length back in fourth in the Dax race and is slightly more favoured in the weights. 5. RENCONTRE SPORTIVE - Finished 6th over 1400m at Parislongchamp in a Listed race on the 23rd of April 2026. Faces an tough task in this class of event

Summary: LAZZAT (3) is one of the better bets on the card and is a clear stand out here. He has been nothing but game in defeat in his last four runs around the globe and now back on home soil, it is very hard to look past him. SILIUS (4) looks to be a clear second best here, both on ratings and form. He has all the right credentials but may have to settle for that second spot. NOBLE CHAMPION (2) has shown to have ability but can be a bit hit and miss at times. He has earning potential. LANZELOT GOLD (1) is best off the rest but will battle to win this.

He goes less than 2000m for the very first time in his career but his class should pull him through. SOSIE (3) who has all the right form figures to topple Daryz especially after having won this race last year. He has his first run in France since the Qatar Prix De L'Arc De Triomphe last year and is the only threat. LEFFARD (2) has a bit to find on ratings with the top two but can sneak into the third spot.
