RACE 3:INKERMAN HANDICAP

Some Nightmare

Delagate This Lord

Gunmetal

SOME NIGHTMARE has been improving well this season and arrives here after a recent success at Chepstow. That form has subsequently been franked and get the four-year-old gelding can overcome a 7lb rise in this contest. Delagate This Lord is lurking on a tempting mark and is not to be underestimated if bouncing back from his disappointing Epsom performance. Gunmetal is another who merits respect and is one to note for market support on his first run for Frank Bishop.

RACE 4: BEST OF BRITISH EVENTS FOUNDATION STAKES (LISTED)

King Vega

Migration

Harrovian

A strong race on paper, with most of the runners in good form and plenty still looking capable of better. KING VEGA has returned from a gelding operation looking much more polished, posting a good fifth in Group company before easily breaking his maiden here last time, and the three-year-old is taken to finally deliver on some of his early juvenile promise. Migration has proven progressive in handicaps this year and shouldn't have any issues operating at this level, while Harrovian has also stepped up recently and cannot be dismissed.
