Seoul Race 4: Class 6 (1400M) Handicap / KRW 30 Million

Regular maiden here and (3) RAON FINALE is the one to beat. She's run 3rd in both her starts to date at 1000M and 1200M, racing both handy and from off the pace. Third-up, she can peaking fitness-wise, the additional trip can suit, and she can win. The danger is (10) MIGHTY BEAT. He has a 6th and a pair of 4th place finishes over 1000M and 1200M, doing his best work late on all three occasions. He is another who should appreciate a bit more distance and he should be challenging late. (8) ECLIPSE TANGO has a pair of 3rd places on his record and while he weakened having led over 1700M last time out, this should suit better, and an apprentice takes 4kg off his back. (1) TRIPLE PALMOETTO has finished 4th in each of her latest three and may do so again. (7) POWERFUL IMPACT another who can compete for the minors.

Selections	(3) Raon Finale (10) Mighty Beat (8) Eclipse Tango (1) Triple Palmetto

Seoul Race 5: Class 5 (1400M) Handicap / KRW 45 Million

(8) QUANTUM K got his maiden win over this distance and has been threatening another, most recently recording a 3rd place on October 19th when settling midfield and running on. Today can be the day. (7) SONGDANG HWANGTAEJA remains a maiden after eleven attempts but has placed on no fewer than seven occasions, five of them over this distance. In this company he can sit just behind the speed, and he should be there or thereabouts again. (3) CHRYSOL MAJOR returns to action for the first time since April. He was going well before the layoff and while he has had an interrupted career, he has run well first-up before and looked well in a trial. (9) WANGCHOEGO and (2) LUCKY FAMOUS other placing chances.

Seoul Race 6: Class 5 (1300M) Handicap / KRW 45 Million

(8) CHOEGANG SPEED has placed in each of his last three starts, most recently coming from off the pace from a wide gate to run 3rd at this class and distance on October 25th. Beating a couple of today's rivals in the process. An apprentice claiming 4kg should put him right in winning contention. (9) SEOMDOLMORU is still a maiden, but she comes in with recent form suggesting that a win may not be too far away. She raced on the speed in both of those and if she can get forward again, she can be in this a long way. (1) GROUPER was 6th behind Choegang Speed last time out but at the start before ran 2nd at class and distance and drawing better this time, should be in the mix. (4) GIDAEHARA and the returning and up in class (5) TAEGISAN KING, are other possibles.

Selections	(8) Choegang Speed (9) Seomdolmoru (1) Grouper (4) Gidaehara

Seoul Race 7: Class 4 (1600M) Handicap / KRW 75 Million

Fillies (and one mare) only here. (6) AWESOME QUEEN has never finished any worse than 4th and comes in following three consecutive runner-up finishes, all at this class and all around two turns. She tackles the mile for the first time, but she draws well to be on pr close to the pace, and she can get it right here. Should she find one too quick again, it could be (9) CHRYSOL STONE. She is three for three having won all her starts so far, up to class 5 level and 1400M. She's up in class and distance and faces much stiffer company here, but she is down in weight, and she can measure up. (7) SMART TAKE was a winner at this class over 1400M in September, making all. She hasn't raced since and is up 5g in weight but is to be taken seriously. (4) RISING MO and (3) KYLIE among plenty of others in good recent form.

Selections	(6) Awesome Queen (9) Chrysol Stone (7) Smart Take (4) Rising Mo

Seoul Race 8: Class 4 (1700M) Handicap / KRW 60 Million

(4) GRACE ROUTE has a 4th and a 3rd from her latest two, both at this class over 1400M. She has placed at this distance before and is tactically versatile and in a competitive race, she has as much chance as any. (1) BLOOD MOUNTAIN doesn't win out of turn, but recent form reads well, most notably his last start 2nd place at this class over 1800M when racing handy throughout. He draws the same inside gate, and he should be on pace and can be in this a long way. (3) GEUMAK MYEONGJANG was a class and distance winner in August and enters off a smart runner-up effort over a mile. He is another who can be challenging for a prominent early position and can be in the finish. (10) CHEONGUNG STORM and (11) HIGH FOLLY are other place contenders.

Selections	(4) Grace Route (1) Blood Mountain (3) Geumak Myeongjang (1) Cheongung Storm

Seoul Race 9: Class 4 (1800M) Handicap / KRW 60 Million

(4) CHUKBAEREUL DEULEORA was a winner at this class over 1700M two starts back before running 4th at this distance on October 19th, having drawn the widest gate. He draws much better this time and has winning claims in what is a competitive race. (7) HEUNGHAENG DOLPUNG has won both his latest two, most recently on his first try at this distance on October 25th, when he led from gate to wire. That brings him rapidly up in class but two turns has seemingly been the making of him and under a light weight, a hat-trick isn't impossible. (8) NASSAU CHAT beat Chukbaereul Deuleora and a couple of others who return here when 2nd in that October 19th race and can be in the finish again. (6) BYEOLKONG and (3) STUNNING MONEY are the other main chances.

Selections	(4) Chukbaereul Deuleora (7) Heunghaeng Dolpung (8) Nassau Chat (6) Byeolkong

Seoul Race 10: Class 3 (1400M) Handicap / KRW 75 Million

(6) WONDERFUL LORD has won two of his latest three with the other being a close 2nd, all at this distance. He comes up in class today but is down 3.5kg and looks nicely in to keep his run going. (4) ONEULDO SMILE won her first four races before running 2nd in the Korean Oaks in May and 3rd on the Gyeonggi Governor's Cup in June, having led in both races. She hasn't raced since and she didn't offer too many clues in a trial a couple of weeks ago, but she certainly has tons of ability and while she may need this, she can be a threat first-up. (8) YONGBI TAEYANG has won his latest two, both at 1400M and is up in class. He doesn't get a weight break, but he can measure up. (10) GOLDEN DRAGON and (5) K N GOLDEN KING are other chances.

Selections	(6) Wonderful Lord (4) Oneuldo Smile (8) Yongbi Taeyang (10) Golden Dragon
Next Best	5, 1

Seoul Race 11: Class 2 (1400M) Handicap / KRW 90 Million

(5) SHADOW HUNTER has placed in all his five starts since his latest win. He has form to overturn on a couple here, but he is ultra-consistent, he likes to race on pace and from a good draw he can defy the 58kg he carries. (3) CAPTAIN P.K. had an ordinary day in the office when well backed last time out on October 25th racing in midfield and finishing 5th. Prior to that he won back-to-back starts including a valuable Trophy race at this distance in September and is worth another chance here. (1) BEOLGYO VERITAS was 2nd in that October 25th race, continuing a positive run of form. He likes to settle back and finish strongly and he can be challenging late again. (7) GREAT STORM is up in class having won well over a mile on October 4th. He'll be on pace and with a 5.5kg weight drop, he can be competitive. (11) DAEMUL another in the placing frame.
