

RACE BY RACE PREVIEWS: KENILWORTH@2021.11.27

Kenilworth, 27.11.2021, Race 1, Gallops, 900m, Turf, R77.000, 13:30GMT+2

Race Summary: The first Western Cape baby race of the season and the betting could should provide clues to the chances of these on debut. Comments from the trainers suggest JAYRANI and LORD OF LIGHT are likely to run well and, as such, the market could peak in their favour. Fillies LEADING PARTY, PRIMULA and SHARE ALIKE could make their presence felt in receipt of weight.

Selections:

#2 Lord Of Light, #1 Jayrani, #3 Not In Doubt, #6 Primula

Kenilworth, 27.11.2021, Race 2, Gallops, 900m, Turf, R77.000, 14:07GMT+2

Race Summary: Baby race for the fillies and again the market should provide a guide to their chances. Glen Kotzen saddles half the field and comments from the yard suggest CERTAINLY and SPYWING should go well. LUCY THE PINK and BELLA MO are of interest too and worth considering for exotic-bet players.

Selections:

#6 Spywing, #3 Certainly, #1 Bella Mo, #5 Lucy The Pink

Kenilworth, 27.11.2021, Race 3, Gallops, 1600m, Turf, R72.000, 14:45GMT+2

Race Summary: NAVY STRENGTH has become costly to follow but the addition of blinkers could prove the oracle. BLIZZARD has shown promise in both starts over 1400m and could fight it out with the the step up to 1600m likely to bring about improvement. Well-bred PINEAPPLE EXPRESS showed improvement in a good race last time when stepped up in trip and on that evidence should confirm that over the extra. JEM ROCK and DOUBLE DUET make most appeal of the remainder.

Selections:

#4 Navy Strength, #7 Blizzard, #2 Pineapple Express, #3 Double Duet

Kenilworth, 27.11.2021, Race 4, Gallops, 1600m, Turf, R72.000, 15:20GMT+2

Race Summary: PEUT ETRE MOI and CRUIZIN CALIFORNIA have been costly to follow. The former was getting closer to opening her account and is worth another chance after disappointing last start following a subsequent 9-week break. The latter has blown hot and cold but performed well for every step up in trip and could fight it out on best form. FAMILY FOOTSTEPS improved to finish ahead of that rival with blinkers fitted last time and could have a say if confirming. Well-related SWEET REPEAT is maturing and likely to make her presence felt on the back of an improved last start. KLASERIE and SHIELD OF LIGHT can earn.

Selections:

#1 Peut Etre Moi, #2 Cruizin California, #6 Sweet Repeat, #8 Klaserie

Kenilworth, 27.11.2021, Race 5, Gallops, 1000m, Turf, R77.000, 15:55GMT+2

Race Summary: BARNEY MCGREW won a good race beating a useful field when dropped to this trip and grade. He was given a 6-point rise but that form has been franked so he could follow up. Consistent SKIDOO is 3.5kg better off and gets blinkers fitted so should pose a threat with Anton Marcus retaining the ride. Top-rated AFRICAN RAIN is the only 3yo in the line-up. He acquitted himself well under a big weight in a strong race last time (2nd run after rest/gelding) and should given another competitive showing in his peak outing. ELUSIVE TRADER and MISTER VARGUS have claims too off their current marks.

Selections:

#3 Barney Mcgrew, #4 Skidoo, #5 African Rain, #1 Elusive Trader

Kenilworth, 27.11.2021, Race 6, Gallops, 1000m, Turf, R72.000, 16:30GMT+2

Race Summary: Plenty of speed early. ROD THE MOD won a similar contest from the front last time and is likely to go well again despite a 5-point penalty. ARCTIC ICE, BALTIMORE JACK and CAPTAIN MIKE are speedy sorts who should give a good sight but a bigger threat could come from FIGHTER who is consistent at this level. He ran on from off the pace to finish 2nd last time and could get another hot tempo to aim at. WORDSWORTH is holding form and should give another competitive showing of himself, while a return to this trip is likely to suit IT'S ABOUT TIME who has dropped markedly in the ratings. Tricky!

Selections:

#2 Rod The Mod, #3 Fighter, #4 Wordsworth, #1 It's About Time
