Race Preview: My Boy Lollipop (4) was much improved in blinkers last run. Although a beaten favourite the winner does appear to be a little above average. Maphaka (8) made a smart debut over course and distance at lengthy odds. He is sure to come on with the experience. Sovereign Command (12) a tongue-tie saw him improve nicely second time out. That was on the poly but he made his debut on this course. Catavar (1) has shown some ability. His best efforts have been on the turf so his last two on the poly can possibly be ignored.

Race Preview: Izibulo (9) has a wide draw to contend with but has run two smart races over ground and rates the one to beat. Grand Occasion (4) finished a length behind Izibulo when last they met but has the better draw. There should not be much between the these two. Safari Lodge (10) has drawn the widest gate and both of her runs to date have been in yielding going. She improved nicely second time out and if overcoming the draw she should at least be competitive. Long Street (5) has improved in blinkers and is seldom far back. Her last two were on the poly but she has shown up well on the turf.

Race Preview: Sun In My Pocket (9) was a well beaten third last run when taking on males and that form has worked out nicely. Hurricane Cat (4) was a beaten favourite last run but battled a little in the soft ground. She was a good second over course and distance at just her second outing and a repeat should see her in the firing line. It's one each between Hurricane Cat and Edge Of Tomorrow (6) but the going could be the deciding factor in the former's favour. Oh Yoko (1) has been disappointing since arriving in the province but does seem better than her form would suggest.

Race Preview: Night Rocker (3) was a beaten short-priced favourite at just his second start but was still green and only got going late. That experience and the extra furlong should be to his liking. Good Living (1) also goes this trip for the first time but has been improving with every outing. Tibbott Bourke (2) is a lightly raced four-year-old but has ability and is proven over the trip. From a good draw he must have a strong winning chance. Teriyaki (10) has drawn wide but has been knocking on the door for some time now. A win would not come as a surprise.

Race Preview: Mc Dazzler (2) has let the side down when starting a short-priced favourite at his last two. He is a lightly raced four-year-old and first time blinkers could bring out the best. Always Shining (4) was running on behind the promising Henry Harvey last time out in his first try on the turf. He has done well over the trip and should be a threat. Super Casanova (3) is showing signs of coming to hand after a much improved effort last time out. He has a good draw and should make a bold bid. Greenlight Express (6) was much improved last run and the stable is currently in good form.
