He should, however, prove an entirely different proposition back on the Highveld and against his own age group. Stablemates Splittheights, winner of Leg 1 of the TAB SA Triple Crown, will have win chance here, though the same applies to runner-up Grand Empire and 3rd-place finisher Trust, both could have more to offer over the extra 200m.

Race Preview: Top-class visitors See It Again and The Real Prince have a score to settle after a few close encounters in the Western Cape recently. The latter edged their L'Ormarins King's Plate meeting over this trip but the former avenged that narrow defeat in the WSB Cape Town Met over 2000m, and a stiff 1600m could be more to his liking. Grade 1 winner and recent Grade 3 scorer Fire Attack all have the means to make their presence felt. However, a bigger threat may come from the sole 3 year old Tin Pan Alley
