Race Preview: Fyfield Legend has already had two starts in the Western Cape and his rivals are all making their debuts. He ran well on debut but did not repeat in his second start. He can make that experience count. Master Mtoto represents the Dean Smith-Craig Zackey combination and this son of Real Gone Kid could be a threat. Trainer Alan Greeff has two entered and Richard Fourie will be aboard U S Ranger who is an Act Of War colt. Blu Celeste is the only filly in the race and runs for trainer Cliffie Miller.

Race Preview: Rockie Blue looked unlucky not to win on debut and finished off his race nicely in his second start. Those runs were on the Polytrack and he will need to prove himself on the turf, but he is the one to beat. Susurrando make the local debut and is capable of improvement. River Fern is knocking loudly at the door and could go one better. Focal Point returns from a break but did run well behind a runner that has won a couple of times since then.

Race Preview: All Systems Go ran a cracker in Gauteng recently and the further he has done the better he has looked. Rival trainer Alan Greeff has been a lot quieter than normal of late but Royal Kingdom on his last three starts will not go down easily. Buffalo Bill impressed with a good win last time out and clearly gets on with jockey Wayne Agrella so must be respected. Smiddyburn is improving and might make the frame.

Race Preview: Lady Limoncello has some fair Gauteng form so it is a bit of a surprise to see her make her Eastern Cape debut for a different trainer. She could be a bit better than these rivals. Lana View is threatening to win and her last run, although a costly defeat, still had merit as she did too much too early that day. Amanatto is also very costly to follow but she is threatening a first win and will not be far away from the winner at the finish. Ocean Flame has been consistent on the Polytrack of late and will need to show she is as good on the grass.

Race Preview: Danish Dynamite is very speedy and has won four of her 6 starts. She should make a bold bid at another victory. Her elder stable companion Song Of Myself has impressed of late with some good wins and she could be her biggest danger. Trainer Alan Greeff has 5 of the 9 carded for this race and stable jockey Richard Fourie sits on consistent Hot Sauce who will be a lively threat.
