Race Preview: Fyfield Legend deserves a winning turn after three runner-up performances in a row. Gimmethatworldcup has already been gelded and makes his debut for the formidable team of Richard Fourie and Alan Greeff. Carnival made a good debut and would not be a surprise winner. Stable companion Night Vision does have stable jockey Craig Zackey in the irons.

Race Preview: Taste The Rainbow showed some improvement on local debut and could have more to offer. Bugle and Monkey's Wedding are both carded to run prior and those runs will need to be looked at. Both do hold fair chances of winning a race at this level. Alakazam disappointed last time out but is clearly not out of it.

Race Preview: Nobody's Perfect has not run badly in two of three starts and should be up to beating these rivals. Stone Of Scone returned to form with a solid runner-up performance and can contest the finish again. Tipsy has room for improvement and is not out of it. Wait For Me makes her local debut and should fight out the finish.

Race Preview: Dupont Emerald is still improving and has won twice in a row. She has every chance of completing the hat-trick. Too Late My Mate showed promise on local debut and should be having a winning turn. Supreme Fate has made the trip from Cape Town and would not be a surprise winner. Pomerol is worth considering here.

Race Preview: Redlight Lane has had her fair share of chances to win a race in the Western Cape. She got close a couple of times and could win a race of this nature. Turbulent has been consistent since moving to this centre and should be right there at the finish once again. Half Moon Island returns from a break but might earn some money. Masterofthebaroque has only been fair so far but could improve for trainer Alan Greeff.
