Race Preview: Wings Of Kildra and Onceinabluemoon have the form and experience to be competitive but both are vulnerable to less-exposed rivals. Well-related newcomers Sand Script and Shivering Light will not need to be special to play leading roles on debut, especially if the market speaks in their favour.

Race Preview: Willow Charm ran into the money last time and can do so again with a repeat of those performances. Well-bred newcomers Sivaji, Brave Waam and Rabble Rouser are attractively bred and if not too green, could fight out the finish in this lineup. The latter, with the benefit of a sex allowance, is marginally preferred.

Race Preview: Buffalo Storm Cody fluffed his lines in a Cape Town Grade 1 last time but a return to the Highveld, and track and trip over which he is unbeaten, should see him alone. Stablemate Main Defender has a good record racing fresh after a break but he will probably need the outing following a lengthy layoff. William Robertson and Almond Sea are course-and-distance specialists with the means to make their presence felt too.

Race Preview: Poets Warrior and Enflame produced career-best performances when winning over track and trip last time. Both remain competitive under resultant penalties so they could fight out the finish. United Council had legitimate excuses for her disappointing last start. She's the best-weighted runner and should make her presence felt. Breeze Over appeal most of the remainder.

Xenophon and African Prince also have consistent recent form at a slightly higher level so they should have roles to play. Arashi is class-droppers too with the means to have a say in the outcome.

She remains open to improvement and should be equally effective over this shorter trip, so it should pay to follow her progress. Chasing Happiness, Little Ballerina and last-start winner Pobano are weighted to be competitive and they have the form and experience to challenge their younger rival.
