Race Preview: Xiphos has improved in blinkers but found one too good for him last time out, being caught late. He is down in trip and can go one better. Task Force raced green on debut and should come on a lot with that run under his girth. Grand Force has shown consistent form over the trip and should be thereabouts again. Outrun The Rain makes his debut for Stuart Ferrie and has the champion apprentice aboard. One to watch in the market.

Race Preview: Blue Poppy made a smart debut at long odds. The extra will suit. American Gem made a smart start to her career when second at long odds. She was ahead of Olive Grove that day. Olive Grove has been coming to hand slowly and showed up well over course and distance last time out. She looks about ready. Mrs Stormatrix made marked improvement in blinkers last run and a repeat will see her close again. Bella Valentina makes her debut from a strong stable and is one to watch in the market.

Race Preview: Spaarne Rivier found market support on debut and finished a close-up third. The step up in trip will suit. Susurrando was running on stoutly over course and distance last time out from the widest draw. He has a better gate here. Taste The Rainbow has not been far back in two outings and although drawn a touch wide the extra will suit. Tickalox is a battling maiden but has not been too far back at his last two and has another money chance.

2 Call Me Wild			3 Magic Hat Trick 1:44.82

Race Preview: Drielandenpunt disappointed when well supported at his second start of making a promising debut. He should much prefer the step up in trip and likely to improve on his last showing. Takeyourbestshot has drawn ten out of ten over course and distance for the third time in a row. He has finished runner-up in his last four and must be due a change of fortune. Green Mile is relatively lightly raced but has come on at his last two on the poly over course and distance and with the best of the draw he must rate a winning chance. Call Me Wild has been consistent over further and is another to consider in all wagers.

Race Preview: King Bavarian has taken a new lease on life of late. He goes well on the poly is distance suited and has a useful 4kg claimer aboard. Blazing Light looks to be back down to a more suitable rating and has shown some improvement with the blinkers removed. Silver Platter finally had his consistency rewarded when shedding his maiden last run and can follow up in this line-up. Thambi is way better than his last run which is best ignored and he gets blinkers.

Race Preview: Ovation Star won with a lot in hand on debut and appears to be well above average. She takes on much more seasoned opposition this time around but does look capable. Rahhabba makes her local debut and comes with some fair Cape form which is often stronger than local. She could be the main threat. One Path has not been out since June but is lightly raced and goes well on the poly. The stable is showing signs of turning. Light Of Gabriel shed her maiden over course and distance last run but does show some promise and should feature.

Serino Moodley has deserted to stay with Connery trying for the eighth win of his career but does have to give Major Tommie 5kg. Future Flo is a model of consistency but does appear to find the 1000m on the poly a touch too sharp for him. Princess Hannah is a course and distance specialist and should be right there again.

Race Preview: Perfume Power takes on males. However, she was a comfortable maiden winner last time out beating stable companion Austrian Beauty who has since backed up that form. She takes to the poly for the first time with a 4kg claimer aboard and should have a strong chance in this line-up. Kinshin Sha has been improving slowly for his new stable and was not far off over course and distance last run. Love My Style surprised when shedding his maiden send time of asking. If he has come on from that run he should be a contender. Pinetti was a comfortable maiden winner last run over course and distance. He had consistent form before that and can feature.
