Race Preview: Real War (12) has made steady improvement and looks primed for this. Of concern is a wide draw but he should still be competitive. Cosmic Captain (3) has not been far back in recent sprints but he does stay this trip well. He has a competitive draw and should be right there for Yogas Govender. Fortune Hunter (1) has the best of the draw and with expected improvement he should make a race of it. Deputy Chief (5) has shown some ability but was a touch disappointing last run. He gets first time blinkers which could see him make good improvement. He could be worth following in the betting.

Race Preview: Tricky maiden. Michael Roberts has been puzzling over the best trip for Future Flo (12) who flatters to deceive. He drops from 1950m to a 1000m dash but has shown some form over the trip. A wide draw is not in his favour but sprinting may well be his forte. Kola Tonic (9) was in need of his last effort. He has shown some ability and does not face a strong field. Mo King (10) was doing his best work late on the poly last run but he was in a modest line-up. Who Blinkd (5) made a promising debut and can improve with the experience.

Race Preview: Zena Rose (10) has made steady improvement and the step up in trip will suit. She will not have it all her own way in an open event but should go close. Greenlitealltheway (6) was a well-beaten fourth when making her local debut but will much prefer this trip and is one to watch in the market. Sweet Reunion (2) is proven over the trip and has the best of the draw. Long Street (8) finished ahead of Zena Rose when last they met but she is well exposed and her younger rival does appear to have more to come.

Race Preview: Dean Kannemeyer appears to hold the key to this event with Spelling Bee (2) and French Flame (5) who both look well in at the weights. There was little between the two when last they met but judged on jockey bookings, Spelling Bee would appear to be the stable elect. Forgiveness (4) takes on males and has her second start after a lengthy break. That run should have brought her on and she only has 52.5kg to shoulder. Plaza Accord (8) was a beaten favourite last run. He has been a little disappointing but the step up in trip could bring out the best.

Race Preview: Vihaan's Bomb (6) bids for his fifth win in succession however he is down in trip and judging on jockey bookings, stable companion Natyam (3) may be the stable elect as he has run two good races since coming from the Cape and is more at home over this trip. Kyomai (8) showed good improvement off a more competitive mark last time out. He has only his third run for Tienie Prinsloo with first time cheek pieces and only has 54kg to shoulder. Blackberry Malt (7) has found form of late and although he got a two-point rise in the handicap for his recent second, he should be competitive again.

Race Preview: Princess Palace (3) won well enough to suggest that there is more to come and can follow up. She's A Bomber (6) makes her debut for Alyson Wright but has not been out since mid-June so may just need the run. Avernian Goddess (1) took an age to get off the mark but has not been out of the money in five starts. She was close-up in her handicap debut and from the best of the draw takes on slightly weaker. She's A Machine (8) has her second run after a lengthy break but caught the eye when racing over shorter last time out. She is one to watch in the market.

Race Preview: Twenty One May (2) ran a blinder on his seasonal debut, finish just under three lengths back to the speedy Lunarcam in a Pinnacle Stakes. The handicappers have not been king and he now races off a mark of 92. Also off a high mark after just two outings is Boom Shakalaka (1) made short work of the opposition in his Maiden win. He copped an 89 rating but has the best of the draw and can follow up. Master Josh (7) is back over a more suitable trip but does have a big weight in spite of Rachel Venniker's 1.5kg allowance while Gorgeous Guy (4) showed some of his better form last run and can feature.
