Race Preview: Paris Rain was unlucky to lose his last start. He was beaten a short head but had things go wrong. He could be a bit better over this shorter 1400m and should have every chance this time. Flaming Drum was taken to the front last time and finished closer. He is still learning what it is all about and needs to be included. Mister Lincoln was too far back in the early stages and finished well behind Flaming Drum but is patently better than the performance suggests. He is drawn better and could show true form. Labrausco and Russian Writer need to be considered for exotic bets.

Race Preview: News Stream didn't show much last time and even though that was a feature he could have done better. The last time he won he was able to set the pace and from draw No 2 he could have things go his way. Beyondtheboundary won a gutsy contest and will have had his confidence boosted. He is again experimenting over 1800m but this could be the right race. Etiquette has won on poly and turf at Hollywoodbets Greyville and if the race is run to suit could move them down. Sunday Island, Nordic Rebel and Victory Twist have definite claims on best form.

| | | 8 Tommy The Kidd 22% | 4 Johnny's Hope 2:35.16 |

Race Preview: Rock Fall has good staying form and just needs to time his run right. He is not well in at the weights on ratings but a 1.5kg apprentice claim could do the trick in a shallow race. Highveld filly Rosslayne gives the impression she could be looking for the marathon distance. The drop in distance in her last start didn't suit. It could get close again between Leopard Lady and Rise. The former was just nabbed by the latter but a change in tactics and weights could see a form reversal. Both have stamina in their pedigrees. Johnny's Hope could make more improvement.

Race Preview: In The Ether has won on the Highveld and the Western Cape and could add KwaZulu-Natal to her resume. She looks to be in the right race but comes from off the pace and will need the timing to be on point. Maquette, like In The Ether, has been running in stronger races and should relish the drop in class. Maquette has blinkers fitted and could show the pace needed to get away. Flying The Star should be speedy if her last run is anything to go by. She has the leading rider up and could finally win. Victory Belle and Rio's Kiss rate dark horses on form.

Race Preview: Time Fo Orchids has stood out form. She has run close-up to Ciao Bella and Princess Calla and having drawn well could get back to winning ways. But along with Aunty Lizzy is giving away weight and could be prepping for bigger races. Amarandi impressed in her last win which was over this course and distance. She is having her third run after a rest and could be hard to pass. Stablemates Sashay Away and Bevies Delight (drawn widest) are very capable and are not ones to take lightly. The former has won three at this track while the latter is back from the Cape where she didn't disgrace herself.
