3	Full Go	27%	10	Rockingthetimeaway	22%	1	Black Egret	1:09.29

Race Preview: Edward Rye lacked support on debut but gave plenty of cheek. He will know more about it. Stable companion Elusive Justice found support but never recovered from a bad start - respect. Black Egret wasn't far back in all 3 starts at Kenilworth and could enjoy a change in scenery. Full Go could pick up another stake cheque. Rockingthetimeaway pulled up fatigued last time and could make the frame. Watch newcomers, especially Back In Business.

4	Marchingtogether	26%	2	Imperial Ruby	24%	7	Youcanthurrylove	2:34.02

Race Preview: Four of the seven runners are top stayers and look likely to fight it out. Arumugam was tried over the marathon distance recently and showed his true potential, winning both with ease. He finished two lengths in front of Marchingtogether who now gets 2kg. The latter was also beaten a head by Zeus on another occasion and also receives 2kg. Shangani last raced when winning the Gold Cup at the end of July and races in his new yard. If ready will make them gallop. Imperial Ruby will ensure a decent pace.

Race Preview: The hardest race on the card. Good Queen Bess comes off a break and could win fresh. Esquevelle is running well and shouldn't be far behind. Cian The Conqueror and Munchkin renew rivalry - cannot ignore either. Kalahari Blue should give a good account of himself. The Mauritian as well as stablemates Angel Of War and Smith And Wesson are more for the shortlist.

2	Val D'orcia	48%	10	Bella Chica	44%	10	Bella Chica	0:56.34

Race Preview: Big Burn will be hot favourite to capture the World Sports Betting Tommy Hotspur Stakes (Grade 3) over 1000m. She is bang in form and should complete a hat-trick. Year younger Karantentang only receives 1.5kg from her and could battle to overtake her. Stablemate Bon Vivant, however, did well sporting blinkers and should make a race of it. Far Away Winter pulled up fatigued last time and could challenge. Bella Chica and Smorgasbord are more for the shortlist to make the money.

Race Preview: Gimme A Shot could take the Wilgerbosdrift Gauteng Fillies Guineas (Grade 2) over 1600m. She has matured now and should be a banker bet of the day. Many are looking to take her on. Emirate Gina is bang in form and looking for 4 wins in succession. Feather Boa is no slouch and should be involved in the money. Orarari Gold, Bless My Stars and Topsy Tarragon are looking for Quartet money.

						3	Kayla's Champ	1:23.05

Race Preview: Good race. Wokonda finished 3 lengths in front of Princess Philippa (3kg better) and 3.25 lengths ahead of Eternity Ring (3.5kg better) - they should get a lot closer together. Bureau Des Legende beat Emerald Princess by 1.25 lengths and is 1kg worse off and before that beat Wokonda by 2.50 lengths and is better off. Queen Of Shadows comes into the reckoning on collateral form but races before this - watch. Sister Light improved last time and cannot be discarded.

Race Preview: The World Sports Betting Gauteng Guineas (Grade 2) over 1600m should see another top finish between stable companions Shoemaker and East Coast as well as Royal Victory, and whichever gets into a good position for nothing, could take it. Money Heist has a bad draw but it will allow him to stay out of trouble and challenge late. Unzen won well in his first run as a gelding and from a favourable draw could have the run of the race. Others are looking for minor money.
