Race Preview: GOLDEN HOSTESS has finished 3rd in both starts, improving when stepped up to this trip last time after debuting over 1000m. She should make further progress so has a winning chance. TUSCANY was on debut when four lengths adrift of that rival but could get closer now with that experience. RENY would have come on too after a pleasing course-and-distance debut, when not beaten far by a useful sort, and can fight out the finish. SAY YES returns from a break after a disappointing last start but could have a say if reproducing her debut effort. Watch the betting on newcome

Race Preview: Good race. Both DANCE VARIETY and FORT APACHE would have come on from pleasing debut outings over this course and distance, so should be competitive. KING MO, INTIMIDA-TOR and HEATHCLIFF are all capable of playing a role if building on the improvement of their last starts. Well-bred newcomer ALLEZ MORIS is one to note and could make his presence felt - respect

Race Preview: Youngster STRATOSPHERIC has finished 2nd in consecutive starts, the latest over 1200m, and will be a tough nut to crack if making the expected improvement going this trip. Year-older filly THE HEAT IS ON has the form and experience to pose a threat. AUTUMN MOON and PRINCESS LOUISA have also shown enough to have a say but will need things to go their way from wide draws. FOREVER BILL and MASTERFUL GUY are exposed yet remain competitive, so have earning potential. Newcomer WHISKEY MAC and stablemate ROYAL PORT LOUIS shouldn't be ignored either. Good race!

Race Preview: NAUSHON has been frustrating to follow but had excuses for a disappointing last run and remains capable of contesting the finish stepped back up in trip. Improving ROBERT BURNS should also enjoy the extra so ought to fight out the finish again. Riding arrangements suggest JEM ROCK could be the pick of the Sands runners, although ELECTRIC WARRIOR should make his presence felt if confirming the improvement shown in blinkers (retained) last time. RUN RUDOLPH RUN has a bit to find with that rival on their meeting last time out but did catch the eye late on and could have a say with more to come

Race Preview: PERFECT TRUST bounced back to form when dropped to 1200m and reunited with Richard Fourie. She is most effective over this trip and proven at this level so likely to play a leading role in the finish. TREASURE HUNT ran well over further off her current mark last time and should again acquit herself competitively back over this trip. CRACKLIN' ROSE was behind that rival from a wide draw when last seen but is weighted to reverse that form from a favourable gate this time around. REWRITE THE STARS, PARISIENNE GIRL and MAGICAL JAVA have a prior engagement but could feature if taking their places.

going can impact on draw in races down the straight.

Race Preview: A case can be made for all. However, it could be worth following the progress of TWI-LIGHT HOUR who bounced back to form in a stronger race when reverting to this trip after a break. She would've tightened up since so should have more to offer eased in grade racing off the same mark. MA BLACK was given a five-point penalty for a fluent last-start win but is likely to pose a threat MISS GREENLIGHT disappointed under a big weight two starts back, finishing behind LITTLE MISS PINK (2kg worse off), but bounced back last time out and can make her presence felt. Remainder

10:40 PM

Race Preview: TCHAIKOVSKY, improved after gelding, has enjoyed a return to sprinting. He followed up his 1100m maiden win with a workmanlike last-start victory in a similar contest to this that he lines up in and the resultant six-point penalty may not be enough to prevent him from completing the hat-trick. Best-weighted CHILLY WINTER will enjoy conditions and on current form is likely to pose a threat. BLUFF ON BLUFF and BALTIMORE JACK are distance suited and capable of making their presence felt, as is WORDSWORTH who shouldn't be far off on these terms. Youngster ALPINE CHALLENGE could also get involved.
