Race Preview: Hunting Trip has finished close-up in both starts and with natural improvement should prove too good for the raced runners. Of those, F Eight could pose the biggest threat. Well-bred newcomers Just Before Dawn and Cloud Chaser could make their presence felt and must be respected if the market speaks in their favour.

Race Preview: Treasure Hunt had both Fleeting and Fusillade behind her in a stronger 1600m race last time and should confirm that form on these terms, over this trip and from an inside gate. Miss Greenlight made a pleasing comeback after a break when staying on over 1000m, suggesting the step up to this trip with improved fitness on her side will suit. Lady Mistico showed promise as a 2yo and could have more to offer this term, so is best kept safe.

Race Preview: Sir William made a most encouraging debut when running on between runners to finish a close-up 4th over track and trip, so could open his account with any amount of improvement expected. Aussenkehr finished just ahead of that rival and is likely to be on the premises once more. Night Tiger improved in his second start over a similar trip to finished a staying-on 4th and ought to make his presence felt if overcoming an awkward draw. Newcomers Inside Story and Bournemouth are bred to be useful and could stake a claim - watch the betting.

RACE 10 11:15 PM (R$100,000) Durbanville - 1250m

Race Preview: Global Forests deserves to get his head in front after three consecutive seconds and could be rewarded for consistency. Both Guy Alexander and Global Avenue found one better last time out and with further improvement could pose the biggest threat. Quasimodo has given better accounts of himself in recent starts beyond sprint distances and could also make his presence felt.

Race Preview: Different Face has maintained consistency and wouldn't be winning out of turn having slid to an attractive mark. However, she has become costly to follow and is probably worth opposing. 3yo fillies Palo Queen, Porque Te Vas and Cityscape are unexposed likely improvers capable of having a say. The latter was an impressive winner of her last start and ought to be competitive. Course-and-distance winner Ma Black runs well fresh and could represent the value in the race. Jury Duty, Apollo Moon and Seeking Peace all have earning potential too.

SOUTH AFRICA DURBANVILLE

A left-handed course with a circumference of 2200m and straight of 600m. The home straight has a downward slope until just before the finish and an ability to at least race handy is important, but the tracks reputation in this regard can also lead to pacemakers going too fast early on. Horses who race from off the pace need a good turn of acceleration to give of their best at this course. Low number draws are a marked advantage.
