Race Preview: Only a few with winning chances in the opener on a high-class 12-race card and betting bonanza, with a Jackpot to get involved in from the off. Apple Catcher outran odds of 50-1 when a close-up 2nd on debut over track and trip, so rates the one to beat with natural improvement expected. Stablemates Head Girl and Jazz Diva have shown enough in their 3 starts each to have a say in the finish. The former returns from a rest but appears the stable elect on riding arrangements.

Race Preview: Tricky Special Weights Maiden. Green Falcon won't be winning out of turn having finished 2nd in his last 2 starts, including once over the course and distance. Seattlegreenlight has been sparingly raced but is obviously thought enough of to make his reappearance. He showed ability on debut in Joburg and confirmed that promise after a rest in Durban, so has to be respected. Bottom weight On Board ought to be competitive. She is distance suited and gets weight from the boys. Carriacou boasts useful form and is a likely improver after gelding, so worth following. Sir William has claims too.

Race Preview: Open. Live My Life made good progress from the rear of the field when beaten little over 2 lengths in a 1200m Grade 2 last time. On that evidence and on pedigree, she could have more to offer over this trip with the blinkers removed. Going Up has a bit to find on the form of the Grade 2 meeting but has run well over this trip and should get closer to that rival on 0.5kg better terms. The latter's stablemate, Who Do You Love, was not disgraced in a Grade 1 last time and ought to fare better on these terms, while the extra 200m is also likely to bring about improvement from capable Bonika

Race Preview: Captain's Ransom retained her title last year (gave 5kg and a beating to Chansonette) and is on course to complete a Majorca Stakes hat-trick. She failed to reel in Make It Snappy in the Paddock Stakes but travelled so well into the closing stages that reverting to this trip should be very much to her liking. She is unbeaten over the course and distance and will be a tough nut to crack in Leg 1 of the carryover Pick 6 Megapool. Ciao Bella and Golden Hostess placed in the Fillies Guineas and could do so again receiving 5kg, with Desert Miracle likely to emerge as the biggest threat. Pick 6s on?

Race Preview: The Snaith yard holds a strong hand in this with stable companions Future Turn and Nevada King closely matched and expected to play leading roles, having finished close-up in a similar contest over 1600m last time. Winter Air has proved inconsistent recently but is weighted to make his presence felt too after finishing behind the aforementioned pair when last seen. Bardolino and Snaith inmate Gimme More Time have acquitted themselves well in both post-maiden outings and from favourable inside gates ought to be competitive again. Gentleman Joe is versatile and also capable of featuring. Tricky!

Golden Sickle and East Cape raider First Origin are forward types who attracted betting support when winning on debut, and they ought to have come since so are best kept safe, along with Dumbledore, another debut winner, open to any amount of improvement.

Race Preview: Big-money sales race. Royal Aussie was 4th in a course-and-distance Gr.1 and need only run to that level of form to play a leading role. Seeking The One won a sales race before returning from a break to finish a pleasing 4th over a shorter trip, so with expected improvement should be competitive. See It Again fits a similar profile. He will appreciate the extra 200m and should make his presence felt. King Regent pleased in his first go at the distance and with further progress can bank connections a hefty stake cheque. Unbeaten filly Winter Greeting and Hammies Hero could show more this trip.
