Seoul Race 1: Class 6 (1000M) Special Weight A / KRW 45 Million

(6) G B ACE is a Luigi Riccardi prepared debutante that has had the one trial for a win on June 11 by one-length. The colt by Mr. Crow must be given the utmost of respect on debut under Furkan Yuksel. As must the Tony Castanheira trained, Kozzi Asano ridden (10) TONGKWAEHANSEUNGJA who has also had the one trial for a victory and that was also on June 11. In his case he scored by a half-length. (11) WHITE THUNDER is another that has had the solitary trial and it was also on the second Thursday of June where he finished second behind a runaway winner coming from midfield. Seo Seung-un rides the Hansen filly for Choi Yong-geon. The first three trials that were held at this venue from the eleventh of last month look to hold the key to the race with (9) GHOST SONIC another that has trialled once for a second on May 21. (7) CHEONMAUI HANSEONG rates next over (1) BLITZ CARA.

Selections	(6) G B Ace (10) Tongkwaehanseungja (11) White Thunder (9) Ghost Sonic

Seoul Race 2: Class 6 (1200M) Special Weight A / KRW 30 Million

(1) BEONGAE LEWIS was an impressive twelve-length winner of his trial on June 11 and this Tony Castanheira trained three-year-old Uncaptured colt looks like he will be extremely hard to beat on his race debut. (9) GLOBAL DINO has only raced once and that was twelve months ago when finishing last but in a strong race. He finished fourth in a trial on May 14 and should be kept safe. (4) OPUS ONE has had the two trials for a sixth in November and a seventh in June. The Roshe combination of trainer Seong Sanghyun and owner Park Jae-yong combine and he should not be discarded on debut. (7) DAREURI YEOWANG has been just behind the placegetters in three runs and rates next along with (8) CHEONGGANG BOM and (5) GEUMSEONG QUEEN.

Selections	(1) Beongae Lewis (9) Global Dino (4) Opus One (7) Dareuri Yeowang

Seoul Race 3: Class 6 (1300M) Special Weight A / KRW 30 Million

(3) LOVELY JACKPOT has trialled since last racing and that effort saw him split Mujehan Geup, one of the top juveniles from last season, and Aman Barows, a subsequent impressive trial winner, so in what is the toughest of the three maiden races to assess that form is good enough to go close. (6) SAENAE RANIA was a beaten odds-on chance last time but was going well enough prior to be given another chance. (9) POWER MAGIC has the been clearly the most consistent of these so in a race with little form to go on she is the safest bet in the race each-way. (1) LOOM CHUKJE might be able to improve on her debut with (5) GOD SPEED and (2) PLAY STAY best of the rest.

Selections	(3) Lovely Jackpot (6) Saenae Rania (9) Power Magic (1) Loom Chukje
Next Best	5, 2
Fast Start	1, 3, 6, 7, 9, 10

Seoul Race 4: Class 5 (1200M) Handicap / KRW 45 Million

(6) GOLD ID will need to get the start right which she has not done in her two starts to date but if she can get away with them, she will go close. She was never in the hunt on debut, but the bad start did not stop her last time when coming away to win by two-and-a-half lengths. She did split black type performers in Black Musk and Satang Sonyeo in one of her trials prior to her debut, so she is more than good enough. (1) BARAMGAEBI was able to break his duck at the fourth time of asking most recently and did so by six-lengths and there is no reason he cannot win again. (11) MUNHAK FIGHTER has been behind (2) PANGPANG DAERO in the past, but he gets a good weight swing and Seo Seung-un rides for the first time. The latter horse recorded his first win last start and that was over the course, distance, and grade. He has gone up eight pounds and one-and-a-half kilograms for that three-length score. Last start maiden winner (5) STUNNING BOLT is the other chance if any with (9) SMART MARU best of the others.

Selections	(6) Gold ID (1) Baramgaebi (11) Munhak Fighter (2) Pangpang Daero
Next Best	5, 9
Fast Start	1, 2, 5, 10

Seoul Race 5: Class 5 (1300M) Handicap / KRW 45 Million

(3) BINNALEEDS has been consistent from five runs without winning and whilst she now comes up to one win company after three minor places in maiden events, she can be given as good a chance as any. (1) CLOVER ONE was an upset winner on debut before finishing midfield in his first effort at this class last time. (11) MANGEUM CROWN is another who has been consistent without winning and he should run his usual honest race. (2) UNJU TIME except for two back has not been far away in most of her runs at this grade and rates next with (8) SAINT WINNER and (10) EXCELLENT HANSEN the other chances.

Selections	(3) Binnaleeds (1) Clover One (11) Mangeum Crown (2) Unju Time
Next Best	8, 10
Fast Start	3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 11

Seoul Race 6: Class 4 (1200M) Handicap / KRW 60 Million

(8) GEOPEN BIGMAN has been out the back in two spaced out runs this year but can go close if he is anywhere near his best in a race that is literally where your best chance of finding the winner is throwing the dart at the board and seeing where it lands. (4) RAON THE KEISHA comes off a last start nose course, distance, and grade victory and will go close. She comes up five pounds and three-and-a-half kilograms for her last run, but her best form has seen her place behind the likes of Rooftop and Gwanaksan Rickey. (2) K N BIGBANG has had three spaced out runs. On debut he finished midfield before chasing home a smart one at his last two starts. (5) NAOL DAEWANG rates as one of the many chances. (7) PHANTOM PRINCE has seven-lengths to find with (1) COMPLETE STEP from June 14 but the latter rises five-and-a-half kilograms. (9) AMAN BAROWS has had a lot of issues. She won a trial softly last week and that was seven days after a third in a trial to Mujehan Geup on June 18 (note that is not listed in some form guides).

Selections	(8) Geosen Bigman (4) Raon The Keisha (2) K N Bigbang (5) Naol Daewang
Next Best	7, 1
Fast Start	1, 2, 4, 7, 9

Seoul Race 7: Class 4 (1800M) Handicap / KRW 60 Million

(2) VALID YOUNG continues to be excellently placed by trainer Moon Byeong-ki to go through the grades and it will be the surprise of the day if he does not lead and win again. His two recent defeats have been behind General Wind, eight-length winner last week, whilst the other defeat in his career was behind Concord Codie. He goes up six pounds and two-and-a-half kilograms for his last start course, distance, and grade victory five weeks ago but that will not stop him. (4) CHRYSOL DONGHAE will be at the opposite end of the field compared to Valid Young in the run, but he should run past a few in the home straight but just like his last two runs he might run past them all bar one. (3) BLOOD MOUNTAIN won a decent enough race over the course, distance, and grade at the end of January but has struggled a bit in three runs since with more on his back. He rates next however over (5) TAPDINE, who has finished in the second half of the field in two runs since winning on Derby weekend, and the up in grade pair of (6) LIGHT WING and (1) MR.CARA.

Selections	(2) Valid Young (4) Chrysol Donghae (3) Blood Mountain (5) Tapdine
Next Best	6, 1
Fast Start	1, 2, 8

Seoul Race 8: Class 3 (1600M) Handicap / KRW 75 Million

(2) CIRCLE A has won three races from eight starts including two and three runs back. He had to do a lot of work to find the front when resuming last start and in a much easier Class 3 this time should prove too good. (3) YONGBI TAEYANG has been placed in two of three runs since coming up to this grade including behind Oneuldo Smile so he is good enough to go close. His last two victories were from the front, but he has raced from the rear in his three runs at this level. (4) RISING MO was second to Fantastic Value in last year's Luna Stakes (Korean 1000 Guineas) and ran midfield at her latest run in May when coming from last. (1) TRISTAN WANGJA has been racing consistently one grade below this so at this level for the first time gets a low weight. The down in grade (10) MIGHTY JJANG and last start course and distance winner one class below this (9) LAFAYETTE rate next.

Selections	(2) Circle A (3) Yongbi Taeyang (4) Rising Mo (1) Tristan Wangja
Next Best	10, 9
Fast Start	1, 2, 6, 7, 9, 10

Seoul Race 9: Class 4 (1400M) Handicap / KRW 60 Million

(8) NAMSAN ROCK was midfield behind some good winners in his first four runs before breaking his duck by a nose over this distance in April. He chased home an impressive victor last start, who has subsequently run second to a very smart one, and that form stacks up well. (2) SMART TAKE was fourth to Love In Seoul when having her first run for six months at the end of May. She rates as a chance as does (5) Hwasan Pokpal who finished midfield in his first six starts but has worked things out since a win three back. (4) RAON THE BELMONT, (1) UNJU PRINCE and (9) BEST CHEONHA are yet to cut much ice since coming up to Class 4 grade but rate next.

Selections	(8) Namsan Rock (2) Smart Take (5) Hwasan Pokpal (4) Raon The Belmont
Next Best	1, 9

Fast Start	1, 2, 5, 9, 10

Seoul Race 10: Class 2 (1400M) Handicap / KRW 90 Million

(2) FLYING DAY is an incredibly consistent four-year-old filly that really arrived on the scene when downing Chief Star in February. She followed that up with a second in her first Class 2 run before going one better over this distance when staying on to beat Nice Force. This is the easiest Class 2 she has run in so despite the six pound and three kilogram rise she is the one to stop. (9) MARU JANGGUN comes up to this grade for the first time following a course and distance win one class below this a month ago and can be given an each-way hope. (8) RAON SILENCE failed in her first run at this level over 1600M on May 23 when working too hard in what was the furthest she had gone, especially considering she was taking on a certain Roshe. Her best form has seen her beat Tiger Roar, subsequent Oaks placegetter, and We Go High so she could very well bounce back. They are clearly the main trio over (6) DRONE KILLER, (7) THE PLAYER and (3) SEUNGBUSA.

Selections	(2) Flying Day (9) Maru Janggun (8) Raon Silence (6) Drone Killer
Next Best	7, 3
