RACE 1: BRITISH STALLION STUDS EBF MAIDEN STAKES (GBB RACE)

Tango Man

Think First

Kyeema

This could go the way of the David Loughnane-trained TANGO MAN. The son of Kingman boasts a very appealing pedigree, being a half-brother to the likes of Agent Murphy, Global Heat and Media Storm, who either won or placed on their debuts. Think First is another interesting newcomer, while Kyeema recently showed promise in a competitive novice stakes event at Ascot and could also be thereabouts.

RACE 2: GASPARA ASSET MANAGEMENT CLASSIFIED STAKES

Sovereign Moon

Mayson Mount

Highlight Reel

Mayson Mount seemed to benefit from fast ground on his most recent outing, arguably recording his best run to date over 1m at Chepstow. A drop to 7f may not suit him on this occasion, though, so preference is for SOVEREIGN MOON. She was two and a half lengths behind the winner on her penultimate outing over this C&D in handicap company and a return to this sphere could see her regain the winning thread. Highlight Reel is another to note.

RACE 3: ABF THE SOLDIER'S CHARITY HANDICAP

Haven Lady Flat White Marine One

Flat White makes her return to the Flat following some solid efforts over timber and she could give a good account if the ground softens a little. However, preference is for HAVEN LADY, who has dropped to just 1lb above her last winning mark. She has recorded some creditable efforts over shorter trips recently and a step up to 2m shouldn't faze her given she kept on over 1m4f recently at this track. Connections of Marine One now reach for cheekpieces and he completes the shortlist.

Beaten 20l behind Selecto at 25-1 when 11th of 14 on her latest flat outing at Newcastle over 1m 4f in January.

RACE 4: SIMPSON MILLAR HANDICAP

Wade's Magic Rain Cap Ginato

In this competitive contest marginal preference is for WADE'S MAGIC, who hit the line with plenty of conviction when third at this venue last time. The five-year-old can capitalise on an unchanged mark, while Rain Cap rates the most immediate danger stepping back in trip. The handicapper has given Ginato a chance and he also merits plenty of consideration.
