Epic Express                      Arctician                      Saturnalia

EPIC EXPRESS returned from a 128-day break to be victorious by two and a half lengths over track and trip last month, and a 7lb rise may not be enough to prevent him from going in again. Arctician has been thereabouts at class 4 level on each of his last three starts, but he will need to prove he is as effective over this shorter distance. Saturnalia is another to consider after his third at Chelmsford over 7f.

Surveyor                      Battle Queen                      Seamore

SURVEYOR showed plenty of promise when fourth at Newmarket on debut and built on that at Leicester, filling the runner-up spot. James Fanshawe's filly could improve for this step up in distance and looks the one to beat on her return. Battle Queen has also run to a good level in both of her career starts so far, including when third at Wolverhampton last time, and she could progress further to have a say. Of the remainder, 170,000-euro purchase Seamore appeals most.

Princess In Rome

Havana Force

Lumiere d'Or

PRINCESS IN ROME beat Havana Force by just under two lengths to shed her maiden tag over C&D. The daughter of Masar renews rivalry on 4lb worse terms, but can confirm her superiority and make a winning handicap debut. Havana Force also goes handicapping for the first time and it would be no surprise to see her improve further. Any market support for Lumiere d'Or in a first-time hood would be interesting.

RACE 4: DOWNLOAD THE RACECOURSE APP RACEDAY READY HANDICAP*Landlordtothestars*Cosmos Raj*Desfondado

Cosmos Raj is a strong contender and should make a bold bid to complete a hat-trick after a couple of wins over the extended mile at Wolverhampton. However, he is likely to find this more competitive and there may be a bit of value in siding with LANDLORDTOTHESTARS, who is also best when on the front end. With Joe Leavy taking 5lb off his back, James Evans' four-year-old has a notable chance at the weights and can launch a bold bid from a favourable draw. Desfondado is also considered.

Moulin Booj                  Crimson Sand                  Lil Guff

Crimson Sand is an interesting one to note in the betting on his first run since undergoing wind surgery, while Lil Guff and Star Of Lady M are a couple of others with solid claims at this level. However, MOULIN BOOJ has started this year with a couple of sterling efforts and on the back of a relatively cosy victory over this trip at Southwell, a 7lb higher mark may not be enough to prevent this still low-mileage four-year-old from going in again.

Mahboob	Hurtle Wallop	Lakota Brave
----------------	----------------------	---------------------

MAHBOOB rewarded the patience shown by connections when making a successful introduction over C&D in December. He won with something to spare and the Gosdens' four-year-old has been found an excellent opportunity to continue his education. Lakota Brave benefited from his debut third at Newcastle when returning to the same venue to break through 11 days later, although stepping up in trip may not suit on pedigree. With that in mind, the main danger could be Hurtle Wallop, who showed a lot more on his second start when fourth at Ascot in October.

Black Smoke                  Foinix                  Socialist Agenda

BLACK SMOKE was said to have benefited from a more patient ride when successful over C&D last month, so similar tactics could see him repeat the dose from a 4lb higher figure. Foinix and Socialist Agenda continue to knock on the door and both are unlikely to be far away, while Gentle Fire has dropped to her last winning mark and should not be written off.

Bear Claws

TWOFORTHEGUTTER posted an encouraging third over 1m4f here in January and his finishing effort that day would suggest the extra two furlongs can unlock some improvement. Further Measure has been running with more credit than the bare form figures would suggest and he's one to consider from an attractive handicap mark, along with Bear Claws, for whom similar comments apply.

Giant Double Time Bell Shot

GIANT impressed when readily making all at Kempton and, upped 6lb from his handy draw, he can show his rivals a clean pair of heels once more for the in-form Richard Spencer team. The likely strong pace should help Double Time to settle better and, now just 2lb above his last winning mark, he can give the selection most to think about. Bell Shot also warrants consideration on the back of his victory at Lingfield, although this step up in grade poses a question to him.

Amancio	Koji	Cuban Harry

AMANCIO finished an agonisingly close second behind a subsequent winner at Lingfield on his penultimate start, and he gets the nod to bounce back from a fourth over 6f here most recently now stepping back up in trip. Koji went in at 33/1 on her stable debut over C&D and, nudged up just 2lb, it would be no surprise if she proved that effort was no flash in the pan. Cuban Harry remains relatively unexposed but will need to settle better, although he has been gelded during his break.
