RACE 2: BETUK OVER 40,000 LIVE STREAMED RACES HANDICAP

Lipsink

The Thin Blue Line

Captain's Bar

Robert Cowell reaches for the first-time blinkers with LIPSINK, who has finished second on his last two efforts over this C&D and, if having the desired effect, this front-running gelding may prove hard to peg back. Captain's Bar was picked up for 24,000 guineas in the summer and is worthy of consideration on his first start for local trainer Scott Dixon. The Thin Blue Line has gone well at this track on all four attempts and appears to be back on a winnable mark.

Grace Angel

Furnicoe

Lumacho

Since finishing down the field behind the smart Dramatised at Newmarket on debut GRACE ANGEL has been a model of consistency ever since and it's interesting that Darryll Holland now applies blinkers for the first time as he must think there is more to come from this daughter of Harry Angel. Furnicoe didn't enjoy the clearest of passages when runner-up on her first start in handicap company last week and warrants to utmost respect. Lumacho is a three-timer winner already this season and has won on both starts on the all-weather.

RACE 4: HUGE DAILY BOOSTS ONLY AT BETUK HANDICAP

Digital

Alligator Alley

Fine Wine

DIGITAL makes his stable debut for the Roger Fell yard and is 1lb lower than his last winning appearance over this C&D in February. The four-year-old was last seen finishing second at Chelmsford in September and has leading claims if returning in the same form. Alligator Alley reverts to the all-weather after a fairly-successful campaign on the turf and warrants consideration, with similar sentiments applying to the Scott Dixon-trained Fine Wine, who won his last two appearances here in the Spring.
