RACE 4: RACING TV PROFITS RETURNED TO RACING HANDICAP

Kalamity Kitty

Yagood

Tralee Hills

KALAMITY KITTY comes into this chasing a four-timer and the step up in trip may bring out even further improvement. She was last seen winning a shade cosily at Bath last month and has been given a 6lb hike for that, however her racing style suggests there may be more to come now stepping up a further two furlongs. Yagood was a most impressive winner over C&D last summer and was only narrowly denied when a beaten favourite at Doncaster last time. Tralee Hills has been pulled out on ground concerns a couple of times lately and could go close if allowed to take his chance.

ATHEBY has gone close to shedding his maiden tag a few times already and may have been found an ideal opportunity here. William Haggas has his string in red hot form at present and is represented by the unraced Foursome, who is a son of multiple Group 1 winner Highland Reel, he looks a fascinating runner. Dubai Immo has been runner-up on three of his four starts and could get his head in front soon.
