RACE 1: CHURCHILL TYRES APPRENTICE HANDICAP

Berry Edge Peripeteia Dandy's Angel

This is competitive with plenty of course winners to choose from, including BERRY EDGE, whose only career win came here last July off a 1lb higher mark. Michael Dod's gelding has performed with plenty of credit the last twice and now could be the time to catch him on the drop in grade. Peripeteia could have been coming here on a hat-trick but for being narrowly denied at Ripon, and she must enter calculations along with C&D winner Dandy's Angel.

NO. HORSE NAME

RACE 2:WEEL EBF FILLIES' RESTRICTED NOVICE STAKES (GBB RACE)

Cite D'Or

Silk Bird

Montevideo

This might be an ideal opportunity for CITE D'OR to resume her progress, having disappointed as an odds-on favourite at Redcar last month. Stepping up beyond a mile looks to be just what she needs and the fact she contested the Denford Stakes on her second start tells you the regard in which she is held. Silk Bird got the hang of things late on during her debut at Thirsk and improvement can be expected here, while Montevideo is a newcomer to note.

NO. HORSE NAME

1 CITE D'OR Foaled 28 Mar. A winner at 7f on good to firm ground. Beaten 1/2l by Greycious Anna when second of 6 at 8-11fav on her latest outing at Redcar over 7f (good to firm) last month.

RACE 3: PEPPERELLS SOLICITORS RESTRICTED NOVICE STAKES (GBB RACE)

Havana By The Sea

Squealer

Miss Brazen

Squealer is bound to be popular here following a taking success in a similar event at York earlier in the month. The son of Mehmas may have his work cut out though giving 7lb to recent C&D winner HAVANA BY THE SEA, who ran a cracker in the valuable sales race at York's Ebor Festival before that. Craig Lidster's charge could easily have plenty more improvement in the locker and she is preferred to Thirsk winner Zuffolo and Miss Brazen.

RACE 4: EDDIE AND VIOLET SMITH CONDITIONS STAKES (GBB RACE)

Acklam Express

Judicial

King Of Stars

ACKLAM EXPRESS looks to have a good chance of gaining his first success of the season. The son of Meham is 5lb clear on the ratings and, with the drop in class and the conditions of the race looking in his favour, he looks the one to beat. Judicial can be forgiven for his latest run on loose ground and better can be expected. He heads the list of dangers from King Of Stars, who has been running well at Listed level of late.

NO. HORSE NAME

RACE 2: ROSE HOTEL HANDICAP (47-65) (DIV 1)

Angel's Trumpet

Rose Of Malta

Golden Days

ANGEL'S TRUMPET ran creditably when second in a slightly higher grade at Galway. He went down by half a length behind a winner who was effective off the front, but came home in a clear second. Leigh Roche conjured a couple of victories from him in this grade at Gowran Park in May and June. Rose Of Malta ran well when second in Cork this month in first-time cheekpieces which are retained. She is a contender. Golden Days was in good form in May and June as she clocked up a win and a close third in Cork. She returned from almost three months off with a keeping-on fourth in that aforementioned race. The Dazzler won over further at this track in June and champion jockey Colin Keane stays loyal off just 2lb higher. Praying Mantis and Super Cub are others with claims.

RACE 3: ROSE HOTEL HANDICAP (47-65) (DIV 2)

Transition	What Adaay	Baalbec Beauty
-------------------	-------------------	-----------------------

TRANSITION has a tough draw in stall 17 to overcome, but is proven over further and should be coming home stronger than most. He didn't run badly in fifth over 1m at this track in June and improved the following month in Killarney to take third over an extended 1m. Colin Keane is an eye-catching booking for What Adaay. This four-year-old filly attracted support in Bellewstown last month and kept on for second. Connections will see this as an opportunity for her to make the breakthrough. Baalbec Beauty has a perfect draw in stall one for a prominent racer. She is making her handicap debut and will be on many shortlists after a runner-up berth in a Curragh maiden over 6f. Veteran Fit For Function is having his 96th start. He showed that there is still fire within as he finished runner-up in Gowran Park at the end of last month.

RACE 4: JET, PEGGY & EAMONN O'CARROLL MEMORIAL (C & G) MAIDEN

Gambe Veloci Prophets Voice Fiddlers Green

Joseph O'Brien's GAMBE VELOCI has been staying on to post runner-up efforts in Leopardstown and Cork, and can get his turn. The 75-rated gelding sets a more than reasonable standard. Prophets Voice holds the same rating and has much more experience having had 11 outings (placed four times). He looks more exposed, however, the first-time blinkers might eke out some improvement. Fiddlers Green has one notable piece of form in the book when runner-up on debut over a similar trip at Gowran Park. He hasn't really built upon that in three subsequent appearances over further, but this trip is a positive.

NO. HORSE NAME

- 1 ATBAY Full brother to Squats, won five times between 5f and 7f. Beaten 18l behind Redstone Well at 50-1 when 12th of 16 on his racecourse debut at Cork over 1m (soft - heavy) earlier this month.

RACE 5:SOUTHERN MILLING & PAUL & VINCENT QUALITY FEEDS HANDICAP (50-80)

Drombeg Duke Dragon Of Malta Is That Love

DROMBEG DUKE took advantage of a lowly mark to record an impressive win on this card 12 months ago and has won twice since including at Bellewstown this spring. The selection again showed his liking for C&D when just denied in June with Mary Salome, now worse off at the weights, close behind in fourth. He has a little bit to find with topweight Dragon Of Malta on running at Roscommon last time but this meeting has probably been the main target all year. Is That Love won six times last year culminating with victory over C&D. The Ado McGuinness-trained gelding has recently dropped down into this rating band and comes here off the back of an improved run when second at Cork. Some rain would boost his chance. Clear Quartz and New York Angel are others to consider.
