RACE 1: READ KATIE WALSH ON BETWAY INSIDER HANDICAP

Marion's Boy

Daheer

Totally Charming

MARION'S BOY made it a hat-trick of victories over this course and distance with a narrow success last time and Roger Teal's charge is taken to go in again here, with a 2lb rise for that latest win offset by Pierre-Louis Jamin's 3lb claim. Daheer won nicely at Wolverhampton latest and could make an impact off 3lb higher, while Totally Charming has been in good form on the all-weather this winter and the booking of Ryan Moore catches the eye.

RACE 2: BETWAY HANDICAP

Living Legend

March Law

Celtic Art

March Law ran well for second in a similar contest at Newcastle last time and runs off the same mark here, while Celtic Art, Protected Guest and Pivoine have similar profiles having both been beaten similar distances by C'Est No Mour on their recent starts. All have claims in this, but preference is for LIVING LEGEND. Charlie and Mark Johnston's charge was only beaten a length into third at Chelmsford last time and could defy top weight with a similar level of performance.

RACE 3: MANSIONBET PROUD PARTNERS OF THE AWC HANDICAP

Mobashr

Diderot Shoot

To Kill

Diderot was impressive on his debut for James Ferguson at Chelmsford, but the former Ger Lyons inmate has been hit with an 8lb rise for that success, so MOBASHR gets the vote. Marco Botti's charge has won both starts over this track and trip, including when successful in a hot handicap here on New Year's Eve. A 2lb rise for that win looks fair and he could progress enough to defy that hike. Shoot To Kill has won his last two in gutsy fashion and has to be of interest, while Lequinto and Keyser Soze are others who have claims.
