UNITED KINGDOM RACING SATURDAY 18 OCTOBER 2025 MEETING
ASCOT / WOLVERHAMPTON

RACE 1: QIPCO BRITISH CHAMPIONS LONG DISTANCE CUP (GROUP 1) (CLASS 1) (3YO PLUS) (FROM ASCOT RACE 1)

TRAWLERMAN - STAY TRUE - SWEET WILLIAM

Race Preview: Having shared the spoils in six of the last 10 runnings, Aidan O'Brien and the Gosden stable look likely to dominate once more. St Leger third Stay True is an intriguing representative for the Irish maestro and he makes plenty of appeal in receipt of a 7lb weight-for-age allowance. However, the son of Galileo isn't certain to stay on his first attempt over 2m and 2023 British Champions Long Distance Cup winner TRAWLERMAN rates as the most solid proposition. The seven-year-old has enjoyed a fantastic season, making all in the Gold Cup here in June the highlight, and he can further cement himself at the top of the staying division. Stablemate Sweet William has hit the frame in the last two renewals and is the pick of the remainder.

1	AL QAREEM	Has won 12 races from 7f to 1m 7f on ground varying from good to firm to soft and on the all-weather. A winner at 9-4 here over 1m 4f (soft) on his latest outing earlier this month, beating Tenability by 6l. Has won 3 times this season.
2	SWEET WILLIAM	Winner of six races from 1m 4f to 2m 2f on ground varying from good to firm to heavy. Won on his latest outing when 10-11fav in the Group 2 Betfred Howard Wright Doncaster Cup Stakes at Doncaster over 2m 2f (good to soft) last month, beating Pendragon by 4l.

RACE 2: QIPCO BRITISH CHAMPIONS DAY TWO-YEAR-OLD CONDITIONS STAKES (GBB RACE) (CLASS 2) (2YO ONLY) (FROM ASCOT RACE 2)

WORDS OF TRUTH - DIVISION - SIR ALBERT

Race Preview: Unbeaten in three starts since being gelded, WORDS OF TRUTH is straightforward and progressive. The son of Lope De Vega broke his maiden with a dominant effort over course and distance in July, before coasting home under a penalty in novices' event a Newmarket the following month. However, his power-packed finish when landing the Mill Reef at Newbury earmarked him as a horse of enormous potential for the future races open to him. He is hard to oppose here. Division is equally on an upwards trajectory, with last week's success in the Rockingham at York noted as the ready the pick of his three career wins so far. A likely pace angle, Sir Albert shouldn't be underestimated back over 6f, while the Redcar Two-Year-Old Trophy winner, Ardisia, remains on the upgrade and cannot be ruled out.

RACE 3: QIPCO BRITISH CHAMPIONS SPRINT STAKES (GROUP 1) (CLASS 1) (3YO PLUS) (FROM ASCOT RACE 3)

MONTASSIB - KIND OF BLUE - BIG MOJO

Race Preview: The sprint division has produced a whole host of different results this season and with a maximum field going to post, it points to another open affair, where it may pay to side with the talented MONTASSIB. William Haggas' charge caught the eye on his return to action at Newbury last month when staying on strongly for third over 5f. Going back up in trip should suit, having landed the Sprint Cup at Haydock last year, before subsequently a fast-finishing fifth 12 months ago. Big Mojo had the likes of Kind Of Blue (second) and Flora Of Bermuda (third) behind in this year's renewal of the Sprint Cup, and it may be that the aforementioned pair overturn that form in a race where they finished first and third in last year. Returning to the scene of his career-best success in the Queen Elizabeth II Jubilee looks like a major plus for Lazzat. He completes the shortlist with 2023 winner Art Power.

RACE 4: QIPCO BRITISH CHAMPIONS FILLIES & MARES STAKES (FILLIES' & MARES' GROUP 1) (CLASS 1) (3YO PLUS) (FROM ASCOT RACE 4)

WAARDAH - KALPANA - ESTRANGE

Race Preview: Last year's hero Kalpana bids to regain her crown after an in-and-out season. Andrew Balding's filly was turned over by Giavellotto in the September Stakes prior to finishing two places in front of Quisisana when only seventh in the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe. Estrange has only found Minnie Hauk too good in three starts this year and connections were left disappointed after she scoped dirty before a tilt at the Arc, but she possesses plenty of ability and needs to be taken seriously. However, WAARDAH beat Danielle by just under a length in the Lillie Langtry at Goodwood in August, proving there are no doubts about her stamina. Owen Burrows' filly has been brought along steadily and could have plenty more in the locker on just her sixth career appearance.

RACE 5: QUEEN ELIZABETH II STAKES (SPONSORED BY QIPCO) (GROUP 1) (STR) (CLASS 1) (3YO PLUS) (FROM ASCOT RACE 5)

FIELD OF GOLD - FALLEN ANGEL - NEVER SO BRAVE

Race Preview: This prestigious prize has gone back to France in two of the last five years. Facteur Cheval is their sole representative this term, but he was second in the corresponding event 12 months ago and wouldn't be out of this should any rain arrive. However, the antepost market suggests the trophy will stay on home soil this year, which could be courtesy of FIELD OF GOLD. Second in the 2000 Guineas before landing the Irish equivalent and the St James's Palace, the Kingman colt appeared to have a valid excuse when reportedly lame after disappointing in the Sussex at Goodwood. Freshened up since, this should be much more to his liking and, if taking official ratings at face value, the Gosdens can land this for the first time since Roaring Lion in 2018. Fallen Angel completed a hat-trick of Group 1 successes in the Sun Chariot a fortnight ago and must be given the utmost respect along with Docklands, who has yet to finish outside of the top three in seven visits here. Rosallion is undoubtedly from the upper

RACE 6: QIPCO CHAMPION STAKES (GROUP 1) (CLASS 1) (3YO PLUS) (FROM ASCOT RACE 6)

FIRST LOOK - DELACROIX - OMBUDSMAN

Race Preview: Ombudsman got revenge on Delacroix after his Coral-Eclipse defeat to turn the tables in an oddly-run Juddmonte International. The Gosdens' four-year-old benefitted from a fierce pace set that day and similar is expected with stablemate Devil's Advocate in the line-up. Aidan O'Brien described the York showpiece as a non-event and after Delacroix's victory in the Irish Champion next time, he may be proved correct, which would make it 2-1 in favour of Ballydoyle. Last year's runner-up Calandagan is bound to attract plenty of support, but a chance can be taken on FIRST LOOK. Andre Fabre's son of Lope De Vega is unbeaten since being gelded, most recently beating Bay City Roller in the Prix Dollar at Longchamp. There is a suspicion the four-year-old is the type his maestro handler does incredibly well with and he may just be peaking at the perfect time.

NATIVE WARRIOR - SHOUT - ARISAIG

Race Preview: Having relished a return to a mile when scoring in good style over C&D last month, Shout merits respect on his current upward trajectory. However, three-year-olds have only managed one success in this contest since its inception 11 years ago and it may pay to focus on the older generation. Four-year-olds have proved triumphant in four of the last eight renewals, with NATIVE WARRIOR ticking plenty of the right boxes. Karl Burke's inmate arrives at the top of his game after scoring twice here in recent weeks, including the Challenge Cup last time, and he looks ready once again for the extra furlong. Arisaig has been far from disgraced outside of handicap company on her last two outings and makes some each-way appeal, while Great Acclaim has been shaping as if this longer distance could eke out further improvement.

NORDIC GLORY - BELLA LOVE - INITIAL BLUE

Race Preview: NORDIC GLORY landed a 0-55 contest over C&D last time with something in hand and this slight rise in class shouldn't prevent another bold showing. A 4lb rise looks manageable for the six-year-old and he's preferred to Bella Love. Although a maiden, the three-year-old has a decent shout judged on the pick of her form this season and she merits respect from a plum draw. Initial Blue and Ten Club are worth a second look too.

BYSTANDER - BIG SIP - DOSMAN

Race Preview: Although the highest rated, Dosman has failed to make an impact since racing under the tutelage of Jamie Osbourne in July and he may be worth taking on. Big Sip should appreciate reverting to Tapeta and cannot be discounted, but the returning BYSTANDER may have slightly more ability. The five-year-old posted some creditable efforts in defeat in deep handicaps throughout 2024 and may take some stopping if returning at a similar level on his stable bow.

KING'S HAND - STIPULATION - IMPERIAL TROOPER

Race Preview: Sir Mark Prescott is always to be respected with his handicap debutants that are stepping up in distance and the unexposed KING'S HAND is no exception. Having cost 78,000gns as a yearling, the son of Kingman is a half-brother to a winner over this trip and he can start to fulfil his potential from a lenient opening mark. Stipulation has held his form well and is an obvious player, despite needing another personal best from his current rating. Imperial Trooper and Fihrayn are other notable contenders.

FLAINE - POPEYE DOYLE - RISEN AGAIN

Race Preview: POPEYE DOYLE saw a hat-trick bid foiled over a mile at Southwell last month but created the impression that a stiffer test could now be in order. Having improved since racing with cheekpieces added, stepping in distance could be a further aid for progression and looks well worth exploring from an unchanged rating. Last-time C&D winner Flaine and the consistent Risen Again also have plenty to offer in this company, while seven-race maiden Flightofthephoenix is dangerous to underestimate.

SNEAKY BLINDER - FORGLEN - FASHIONELLE

Race Preview: A C&D winner on his penultimate start and respectable third after a troubled run back here last time, SNEAKY BLINDER can progress further over this trip. A current rating of 53 looks manageable and Robert Stephens's four-year-old merits another chance. Fashionelle was a place ahead of the selection when filling the runner-up slot here 12 days ago but might struggle to uphold the form on the revised terms. With that in mind, Forglen could be a bigger danger with the step up in trip a likely source for improvement.
