

Keeping families safe from domestic violence

We are thrilled to do our part for those affected by domestic violence by providing a new home for the Casa Raudha Cares centre. Casa Raudha has touched the lives of more than 600 women and children in the past five years, and this dedicated space will offer others a private one-stop centre of support. With this rent-free space and financial support through our Community Housing Scheme, the collaboration reinforces our commitment to the community.

Casa Raudha Cares facilitates staff, training, and partner collaboration and offers services such as safety assessments, emotional counselling and crisis intervention aimed at empowering survivors and breaking the cycle of domestic violence. The official launch on 22 February was graced by Deputy Prime Minister, Mr Heng Swee Keat alongside Singapore Pools Chairman, Mr Kai Nargolwala, and CEO, Mr Lam Chee Weng, where a special collaborative art piece titled 'The Healing Hearts' was unveiled.

Singapore Pools partners with authorities to combat scams

As a socially responsible organisation, Singapore Pools continues its commitment to responsible gaming practices and keeping the community safe. Earlier this month, we partnered the Singapore Police Force to disseminate anti-scam messages to create awareness to prevent Singaporeans from falling prey to scams.
